Truman-Attlee Will Conclude Meetings Today

(BULLETIN)

By JOHN A. REICHMANN
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—President Truman and British Prime Minister Attlee conclude their historic Washington conferences today in complete accord on action against Communist aggression.

A joint communique summarizing the steps decided upon to meet the threat of World War III will be issued at the White House shortly after the two government heads conclude the seventh of their non-stop sessions.

Mr. Truman and Attlee start the final meeting at 11 a.m. (EST) at the White House.

Points Expected

Today's communique is expected to stress these points:

1. The United Nations allies will insist on maintaining a beachhead in Korea. However, they will not become engaged in an all-out war with the Chinese Reds.

2. The U. S. will extend its utmost aid to speed the rearmament of Europe and the creation of a Western European defense army which will include German troops. Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower will be named next week to command this force.

3. Raw materials are to be pooled

American Jet Fighters Have Battle In Air

U.S. Troops Hope To Meet Relief Column North Of Hamhung

By LEE FERRERO
(I. N. S. War Correspondent)

SEOUL, Dec. 9.—Tank-led U. S. marines and soldiers struggled in a raging blizzard Friday to burst out of the Kotori trap in northeast Korea, but ran into withering Chinese crossfire on the escape road to the sea.

The swarming Communists, looming like wraiths out of the swirling snow, struck back with a heavy attack on Kotori's airstrip from which hundreds of American wounded and sick have been flown out during the past week.

Still Held by Yanks

A front dispatch received shortly before midnight Friday (10 a.m. EST) said the airfield still was in the hands of the tenacious leathernecks and GI's waging one of the most gallant battles in America's military annals.

A few hours before the Chinese opened fire on the field a big C-47 evacuation plane, piloted by Lt. Col. Philip Cage of Houston, Tex., landed on the Kotori airstrip after its runway had been lengthened to 2,400 feet. Heretofore, only small planes were able to use the field for evacuation of casualties.

Hope To Meet Relief Column

Together with some British commandoes, American spearheads knifed down a slithery one-lane road toward Majon, 13 miles to the south, where they hoped to meet a U. S. Army relief column fighting north from Hamhung.

High over the storm clouds above northeast Korea's frozen Changjin reservoir, American F-80 jet fighters attacksd Aussian-type Jets heading for Hamhung. A big air engagement between the streaking jets was fought nearly five miles above the earth's surface. The outcome was not yet known.

In the heart of the far-torn peninsula meanwhile Chinese-directed North Korean troops enlarged a new invasion salient projected two

Wind Storm Is Damage Cause

Erie Gets Winds Of 90 Miles Per Hour

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 8.—(INS)—The western Pennsylvania district grappled with the weather again today—this time strong winds buffeted the area.

The winds blew out of the northeast yesterday reaching a peak velocity of 91 miles per hour at Erie, Pa. Pittsburgh was hit with 40 mile an hour winds, with gusts up to 60 miles an hour, and the Connellsville-Uniontown area reported winds up to 65 miles per hour.

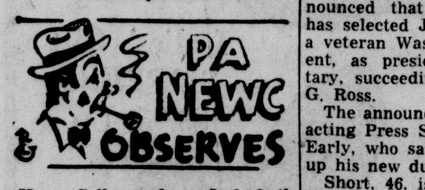

Heaviest damage was in the latter area where large garages and other buildings were unroofed, utility poles toppled and walls blown down.

Blimp Destroyed

An advertising blimp at the Allegheny county airport, valued at $60,000 to $70,000, was destroyed with an additional loss of $6,000 worth of helium.

Pittsburgh rivers were rising again after a heavy rain yesterday which ice-glazed many streets and highways when freezing temperatures set in last night.

The weather bureau reported a stage of 21 feet, four feet below flood, at the point in Pittsburgh with a further rise expected today. The crest was not predicted.

Harry Colley and son Jack, both city firemen, have returned from Forest county, where they were hunting deer.. Jack was successful in bagging a nice four-point buck.

Some rural residents who were caught with corn in the field now, are hoping that no furher snow accumulates on the farm land. Stock are in need of the corn which has not been husked as yet and supplies may have to be purchased if they are unable to get at that in the fields.

A light skiff of snow which fell shortly after 9:30 p.m. Thursday, and then freezing on district highways, called out cinder crews of the highway department. The workmen spent about two hours on the roads to make them safe for travel. Most roads were rather glossy and caution was exercised by motorists.

Thursday's driving rain caused further damage to local homes whose roofs were opened up by falling spouting during the recent storm. The rain was blown under

Big Three Western Powers Plan Sharp Reply To Russia

By KINGSBURY SMITH
(European General Manager, I. N. S.)

PARIS, Dec. 8.—The big three western powers were reported today to be planning as a result of Korean developments, a much sharper reply than originally anticipated to Russia's bid for a four-nation parley on Germany.

Authoritative sources said that American, British and French conferees at yesterday's Paris meeting decided to tell the Russians that the proposed rearming of western Germans is the fault of the Kremlin.

The plan is to explain that the west devised a means of including western Germans in a European defense force because the Soviets already are rearming eastern Germans in their occupation zone and so far have refused a sensible settlement on the German question.

New Secretary To President Is Selected

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(INS)—The White House today announced that President Truman has selected Joseph H. Short, Jr., a veteran Washington correspondent, as presidential press secretary, succeeding the late Charles G. Ross.

The announcement was made by acting Press Secretary Stephen T. Early, who said Short would take up his new duties on Dec. 18.

Short, 46, is a native of Vicksburg, Miss. He is now a Washington correspondent for the Baltimore Sun.

A former president of the National Press club, Short has worked in Washington since 1931 when he came to the Washington Bureau of the Associated Press.

He joined the Washington Bureau of the Baltimore Sun in 1943 after two years with the Chicago Sun Washington Bureau.

Ask Bids For State College Buildings

HARRISBURG, Dec. 8.—(INS)—The general state authority today called for bids on four ore projects in the $10,000,000 building program at Pennsylvania State College.

Bids will be received December 28 for construction of a fourth floor on the main engineering building. On January 3, bids will be received for construction of a million dollar chemistry building, an addition to Pond Chemistry Hall and a chemical storage building.

KILLED IN AUTO CRASH

MOOSIC, Pa., Dec. 8—(INS)—One man was killed and another seriously hurt today when their automobile skidded and struck a roadside pole ripping powerlines and disrupting service to several communities.

The victim was identified by State Police as John M. Butler, 23, of Peckville, and the injured man as Henry Dewey, 22, of Peckville, the driver.

ASSISTANT COMPTROLLER

HARRISBURG, Dec. 8.—(INS)—The appointment of John F. Francella, of Downingtown, an assistant comptroller for State Welfare department at $4668 a year was announced today by Secretary W. C. Brown.

He formerly was employed in the Auditor General's and State Treasurers department.

Huge Drifts In Midwest Area

Storms Also Rage In Other Sections

(By International News Service)

Snow driven by winds that reached 45 miles-an-hour in spots whipped over the Great Lakes region today and there were threats of huge drifts in Wisconsin and Michigan.

High winds and rain storms also lashed the New York and New England, with the full force of a gale aimed along the northeastern shoreline.

Weather bureau officials warned of "abnormally high tides" all along the New England coast which opened new breaks in sea walls lashed by two other storms with the last two weeks.

New England Coast Guard stations were placed on 48-hour alerts and officials warned ships to find shelter in the nearest harbors. Two Coast Guard cutters towed the disabled tanker Sinclair H. C. into refuge a South Portland, Me., despite heavy seas and strong winds.

Chicago and the area surrounding the nation's second largest city were partially crippled by screaming winds and thousands of tons of snow.

Calumet, Mich., reported 44 inches of snow on the ground, an increase of eight inches in the past 24 hours; Land O'Lakes, Wis., reported 37 inches; Wausau, Wis., 18, and Minneapolis, Minn., 16. Chicago had a total of eight inches, according to the weather bureau. Drifts in some outlying areas were reported up to 10 feet deep.

Five Enter Pleas Of Innocent On Contempt Charges

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(INS)—Two wartime atomic scientists, a western Pennsylvania Communist organizer and two other men pleaded innocent today to contempt of Congress charges.

The five, indicted for contempt for refusing to answer questions by the House un-American Activities committee, are:

Steve Nelson, of Pittsburgh, Communist organizer; Giovanni Rossi Lomanitz of Oklahoma City and David Bohm of Princeton university, atomic scientists; Marcel Sherer, United Electrical Workers Union official, and William L. Patterson, executive secretary of the Civil Rights Congress.

Federal Judge Matthew McQuire set January 18 as a trial date for Nelson.

Assistant U. S. Attorney William Hitz attempted to have Nelson held in $5,000 bond on the ground that he is in the United States illegally and "probably is an underground agent for Russia."

McQuire, however, set Nelson's bond at $1,500 along with the other four.

REPORT SETTLEMENT

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Dec. 8—(INS)—A $22,500 settlement was reported today to a widow of a 28th Division soldier killed last September in a Pennsylvania train wreck near Coshocton, O.

The settlement with Mrs. Edward W. Gallagher, of Wilkes-Barre, by the carrier was revealed in court house records. Her late husband was a member of the 109th Field Artillery which was en route to Camp Atterbury, Ind., when the troop train was wrecked.

Long Range Mobilization Is Considered

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8—(INS)—President Truman and his top advisers sought today to devise long range mobilization to meet the world Communist danger without shackling the national economy.

The uncertainty as to how long the present world crisis will last is a major factor in administration discussions on whether to declare a national emergency and order full mobilization.

The White House announced that Mr. Truman and his aides have considered the need for such extreme action, but said it "is not imminent" in a few days or next week.

On another controls front House and Senate Banking Committee members scheduled a 3 p.m. conference to iron out differnces between a two-month rent control extension approved by the Senate and a 90-day extension passed by the House.

Rumors have circulated in industry that a wage-price freeze is imminent, and some members of Congress have demanded that the president put the country on an all-out war footing.

MILK PRICE INCREASE

HARRISBURG, Dec. 8.—(INS)—Bottled milk prices in the Scranton-Wilkes-Barre milk marketing area are slated to jump a penny a quart December 16 to a new high of 22½ cents.

The price schedule, drafted by the State Milk Control Commission, would revert to 21½ cents April 1 under the seasonal schedule.

Showdown On Intervention By China Is Near

Large Majority Of U.N. Delegates Are Against Appeasement

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Dec. 8—The United Nations and Communist China approached a showdown today on the issue of Korean military intervention amid mounting evidence that a large majority of delegates are opposed to any appeasement.

In the 60-nation political committee, where the United States went on record yesterday against yielding to Sino-Soviet force in Korea, a number of western powers will announce their position during the day.

Among them are the British, French and Latin-Americans. Conclusion of the Attlee-Truman talks in Washington and their announced decision to stand against any appeasement of Communist aggressors ended a log-jam at U. N. on the formulation of major policies by non-cominform delegations.

Awaiting Answer

At the same time, India and the 12 other Arab-Asiatic nations which sent an appeal to Communist China not to send troops across the 38th parallel are awaiting an answer from Gen. Wu Hsiu-Chuan. The Peiping spokesman at U. N. last Tuesday forwarded the appeal to his government and promised a reply shortly.

Last night Madame Vijaya Lakshmi Pandi, Indian ambassador to the United States, called on Wu. There were reports that he had given her his governments' answer but Madame Pandi replied to questions only with "no comment".

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky already has fought bitterly against speedy action in the assembly on the six-power resolution which calls on Red China to get out of Korea. He maintained that American withdrawal from Korea alone can solve the crisis.

No Appeasement

Warren Austin, chief American delegate, dispelled any remaining fears that U. N. will tolerate appeasement by outlining yesterday the five-point course he insisted must be followed by the world organization.

He stressed that Red China has put 260,000 trained and organized troops into Korea itself and summed up U. N. objectives as follows:

"First, to assure the security of the United Nations forces in Korea.

"Third, to localize the Korean conflict.

"Fourth, to bring about a speedy conclusion of the fighting on a satisfactory United Nations basis.

"Fifth, to make assurances that the United Nations has no purposes hostile to the security or threatening to the interests of Korea's neighbors."

He added:

"If those who are challenging the United Nations believe that we will give up our principles because they threaten us with mighty force, let them know that they are tragically mistaken."

Announce Marines Only Six Miles From Relief Column

(BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(INS)—The navy announced today that U. S. Marines fighting their way out of encirclement in northeast Korea were only six miles this morning from a relief column coming up to meet them.

The 20,000 trapped marines and GI's are moving down winding, mountainous roads below Kotori in an effort to link up with U. S. Army column moving northward to their aid.

Within Six Miles

The Navy report did not locate the Marines exactly, but said the Third Division infantryman marching to their rescue are within six miles of their goal.

The navy also revealed that, before heavy snow set in, carrier based pilots yesterday flew a record number of missions in an effort to aid the marines.

A total of 507 combat missions

Rural Schools In Safety Drive

Principals Approve Green Pennant Idea

At the monthly meeting of the Lawrence County Principals Association, held in the office of the County Superintendent, in the Court House Annex, Thursday evening, it was voted to adopt the Green Pennant safety project in all the county schools, in an effort to reduce highway accidents involving students.

J. Arthur Turek, supervising principal of the Union township schools presided, and introduced Sgt. Raymond Blythe, and Cpl. Hugh Cunningham, of the Pennsylvania State Police, who spoke about the successful operation of the Green Pennant campaign in other districts.

Committee Named

County Schools Must Make Up Time

County Superintendent of Schools R. F. Conway, stated today that in his opinion, rural schools which lost time because of the record snow a week ago, will probably have to make up this time.

The law requires schools to have 180 days of school during the year, and sees no way in which this can be avoided.

Some districts, which have more than 180 days, in other sections, have stated that they are not going to make up the lost time, but he believes this is due to the fact that their terms are longer than the required 180 days.

Congress Is Placed On Emergency Basis

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8—(INS)—The House was placed on an emergency basis today because of the war situation.

Speaker Rayburn (D) Texas inaugurated the new policy of keeping the House in session daily Monday through Friday regardless of whether it has any business to transact.

As a result, the House meets at noon today although majority leader McCormack (D) Mass., announced that "there will be no business to transact unless something of an emergency nature should arise."

Gen. Collins Is Back From Trip To Korea Front

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(INS)—Army Chief of Staff J. Lawton Collins returned from an inspection trip to Korea and Japan today to announce that U. S. troops in Korea will not suffer further serious losses.

Gen. Collins said that after conferences with Gen. MacArthur and top staff members in the UN command convinced him that the American forces "will be able to take care of themselves without further serious losses.

Collins refused to say where a "no retreat" defense line might be established against the Chinese Communist forces in Korea, but indicated he would report on this subject to the joint chiefs of staff.

The plane returning Collins from a week's trip to Japan and Korea reached Washington National airport shortly after 8 a.m. EST.

Collins flew to the Far East a week ago, armed with a plan for evacuating outnumbered U. S. troops by sea and air should such a drastic move be necessary.

Though his comments were carefully guarded, military observers interpreted his statement as meaning that no Korean "Dunkirk" is in sight.

Collins, famed for his leadership in the St. Lo breakthrough in World War II, talked extensively with Gen. Walton Walker and Gen. Edward Almond, top U. S. commanders in Korea.

He indicated that Walker and Almond assured him that the Red surge can be halted and that U. S. and other U. N. forces can dig in and hold the line in Korea as long as necessary.

Few Of North Korean Troops Are In Action

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondence)

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Dec. 8.—The U. N. Commission of Korea reported today that possibly up to 400,000 Chinese Communist troops are attacking United Nations forces in Korea and that "very few" North Koreans are in action.

The commission, in a report to Lake Success from Korea, declared that 231,000 Chinese comprising 26 divisions have been "definitely identified" in action and that other estimates add up to 400,000 men in the northern areas.

The commission said it believes the number of interventionist forces is increasing steadily and stated:

"At present the troops fighting the forces of the United Nations consist almost entirely of Chinese. Very few North Korean troops are in action."

Parking Receipts Total $44,799.50

Parking meter receipts for the first 11 months of 1950 amount to $44,799.50, according to Coin Collector Arthur Harris' report to Chief of Police Robert D. Hanna. It is anticipated that an additional several thousand dollars will be paid by motorists this month. The money is placed in the general revenue fund, and is devoted to paying some of the general expenses of the city.

Hearings On Excess Profits Tax Bill Are Nearing End

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(INS)—The State Finance Committee winds up hearings on the excess profits tax today amid strong indications that important changes will be recommended in the House-passed profits levy.

Members of the committee hinted they have been impressed by the vigorous objections of a series of witnesses to several provisions of the House Bill, designed to raise 3.4 billion dollars.

Business and industry spokesmen have unanimously denounced the fact that profits exceeding 85 per cent of those earned in the base period would be defined as "excess" and subjected to the tax.

As you walk along the street, pay attention to your feet, don't be putting them on places topped with ice, pick your spots as on you go, take a look for ice and snow or what happens to you will not be so nice. These are days for safety first, carelessness will bring the worst and you'll topple on the sidewalk, so take care, pick a spot that's dry and clean or a sod that shows the green and they will not have to call a doctor there. So remember and take heed, put a brake upon your speed, and you'll get there as you plod along your way, just a little tiny skid and there's trouble for you kid, so take heed, it's up to 28 today.

Says Europe Is Still Key To World Peace

By WILLIAM J. ALLEN
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

ATLANTA, Dec. 8.—Ex-Communist Czech Finance Minister Dr. Hugo Skala said in Atlanta today "Europe is still the key to world peace," and "the population of middle Europe will never be pro-Russian".

Skala resigned from the Czechoslovakian Commercial Mission to the U. S. last spring for Political Asylum.

He now is developing an economics department at Georgia's privately-owned Negro College Center, Atlanta University.

Skala told International News Service the "population of the Balkans and middle Europe are closer to the United States than most people know". He added:

"While we may expect no violent uprising, the people of the 'buffer states' would never knowingly contribute anything of value to a Russian war effort. They are a religious people and while there is anti-German sentiment, they would support the U. S. and France and Tito by underground and sabotage". Skala voiced a new theory of Russia's aggression, saying:

Few Years For Stalin

"I believe that Stalin sees only a few more years of life ahead. And if you look back to 1945, he has constantly stepped up an obvious " 'schedule' of aggression, aiming for world-wide Communism in his life time.

"But the people of Romania, Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia, Hungary and even his own Ukranians and Cossacks are prone to rebel at the thought of an anti-west war, and the voice of America should get credit for the hope".

He claims that "Russian Communism is doomed to die by its own hands" for practicing the grievances of heavy-handed capitalism as no other nation ever has. Skala explained:

"The workers are less prosperous under the exploitation of Russian doctrinaires than they ever have been before".

To Leave Door Open

The conferees decided, however, to leave the door open to a big four conference by telling Moscow that they are willing to listen to any constructive suggestions on Germany provided that an agreement can be reached on an agenda.

The conferees decided further to recommend a joint, short and stiff reply instead of sending separate notes to Moscow. Their purpose is to give full evidence of western unity.

The recommendations of the three-power representatives were transmitted last night to President Truman and British Prime Minister Clement Attlee in Washington.

If the chief executives of the United States and British approve these recommendations without changes, the Paris conference possibly may be concluded tonight or tomorrow.

It was learned that the conferees discussed a French proposal for telling Russia that the west would hold up the arming of western Germans to be incorporated in a European defense force. It is doubtful, however, that any such specific promise will be given to Moscow in the reply of the three powers.

were flown. From the small carrier "Badoeng Straits," with 24 operating marine planes, a total of 75 missions were flown.

The air force announced that giant C-19 planes have parachuted eight military bridges to the marines. Bridges along the road have been blown up by the Communists.

An air force spokesman said that the bridge spans were dropped with large parachutes similar to those used for dropping jeeps and heavy artillery.

The army could not give the dispositions of the seven Chinese divisions opposing the marines, but said the Chinese units are known to be in the general area from Kotori to Hamhung, which is a short distance from the coast.

TRUMAN-ATTLEE WILL CONCLUDE MEETINGS

so as to be reasonably priced and available to the nations in the North Atlantic Pact.

The communique is expected to be much more detailed than others issued in the past, although it is certain that because of security many military decisions will be omitted.

Get Sharp Boost

The two-power talks got a sharp boost as a result of the agreement in Paris on the method of including Western German troops in a unified European defense force.

Both Mr. Truman and Attlee were pleased with the work of the North Atlantic Pact deputies on this point, which had been holding up defense plans.

The heads of the two great English speaking governments discussed at length the question of blockading China. This would be one way to reduce the war potential of the Chinese Reds by shutting out sea movement of raw materials necessary for the Communist war machine.

It is not known whether any agreement has been reached, or whether if such an agreement was reached it will be announced to the public.

May Leave Tonight

Following today's meeting, if all matters can be wound up in that time, Attlee is to have lunch at the British Embassy. Then he will fly to New York to be the house-guest of Sir Gladwyn Jebb, chief of the British delegation to the United Nations.

The prime minister will have dinner with Jebb and hopes that U. N. Secretary General Trygvie Lie will be able to attend.

Early Saturday, Attlee will proceed to Ottawa to report on his meetings to members of the Canadian cabinet. He will leave for London from Montreal some time Sunday.

RURAL SCHOOLS IN SAFETY DRIVE

Grace McCreary, of Hickory township, ot pass on decisions involving the negligence of students in accidents. Green pennants and individual badges will be awarded in each school, where there are no traffic accidents within a thirty-day period.

Russell B. Canan, representing the New Castle Lions club, stated that the Lions club was sponsoring the project in the county, and would underwrite the expense of this project.

Jerome M. Daugherty, of the Pennsylvania State Employment Service, explained the aptitude test given to seniors, above the age of 17, in attempting to fit them for jobs, and offered the use of these facilities in the schools.

County Superintendent of Schools, R. F. Conway, spoke on the part schools will play in Civilian Defense, which program will be introduced in the near future.

A committee composed of Eugene Hill, of Harlansburg, and Mrs. Erna Smith, of Sunny avenue school, was named to make arrangements for the meeting of the Principals Association on January 4, which will be in the form of a dinner meeting.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hagerty and sons, Larry and Gerald, Jr., of R. D. 2, Sunny avenue, have left for Ferndale, Mich., where they will visit with the former's brother and family, Rev. and Mrs. Russell Hagerty. Rev. Hagerty is the pastor of the Christian and Missionary Alliance church here.

NOTICE!

Heavily Engaged

In an unspecified sector "in the neighborhood of the parallel" above South Korea's uneasy capital, a British unit has been "heavily engaged" with Red Cross forces for two days, a Friday night field dispatch disclosed.

The intensity of this combat was indicated in the message which related that one British lieutenant alone hurled 76 grenades at the Communists Thursday in the first day of fighting.

"We have not only taken Pyongyang (the North Korean capital), but are going beyond the 38th parallel."

Brig. Gen. Lee Ho, deputy commander for reimposed martial law in Seoul, declared the North Koreans striking below and along the parallel are not guerrillas but well-equipped regulars under Chinese direction. He said they have a solid supply line up the peninsula's center along the inland flank of the principal UN forces in the northwest.

On the main front in northwest Korea, vanguards of Red China's million-man invasion army stepped up patrol thrusts along the flanks and center of the Eighth Army's new 75-mile defense line between Pyongyang and the 38th parallel.

Larger Forces Coming

Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters spokesman said the Chinese were pouring ever larger forces down North Korea's western seaboard toward the Eighth Army's defenses. He said "another big push" was expected.

Droves of U. S. planes, including B-29 Superforts, hammered through Friday at the Chinese reinforcements streaming down from the Manchurian border. Despite low visibility caused by overcasts and snow, the airmen reported knocking out five key bridges.

Headquarters announced a newly-arrived Netherlands battalion had taken up "blocking positions" and a battalion from Thailand (Siam) had relieved South Korean troops "north of Seoul."

Heavy snow that began falling over northeast Korea early Friday denied sorely needed air support to the 20,000 "never say die" marines and GI's fighting below Kotori on the twisting road leading to the coastal city of Hamhung.

Banking Secretary Of State Assails Government Plan

HARRISBURG, Dec. 8.—(INS)—The federal government's practice of granting loans and subsidizing business was assailed today by the State Banking Secretary D. Emmert Brumbaugh.

Brumbaugh, speaking at the mid-winter conference of the trust division of the Pennsylvania Bankers Association, said the government should "get out of the loading business and discontinue subsidies except where they are absolutely necessary to provide our needed materials and food."

JACQUIE CEARFOSS GUEST AT SHOWER

Miss Betty Jean Cearfoss, Lowellville, Ohio, entertained at a lovely pre-nuptial shower on Wednesday evening for her cousin, Miss Jacquie Cearfoss, a bride-elect of this month.

Prizes for contests were awarded to Mrs. Jack Cearfoss, the bride-elect's mother; Mrs. Frank Rheinhardt, grandmother of the bride-to-be; Miss Helen DiCaprio; and Miss Patricia Cearfoss, the bride-elect's sister.

A dainty lunch was later served by the hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Tom Cearfoss and Mrs. Robert Dovich. Favors were miniature heart-shaped baskets with tiny wedding rings attached to the heart. The attractive centerpiece was a larger heart designed like the favors.

Several gifts of a personal nature were later presented to the honored guest.

Miss Jacquie Cearfoss will be united in marriage with Seaman George B. Doerr on Saturday, December 23. The "open church" ceremony will be performed in the Madison avenue Christian church at 7:30 o'clock.

WALMO GARDEN HAS GALA LUNCHEON

Mrs. Will Mooney of Walmo graciously received members of the Walmo Garden club into her home on Thursday afternoon, with Mrs. Sam Mooney as associate hostess. A one o'clock luncheon featured the activities, with places arranged for twenty-two guests.

Four special guests were Mrs. Ed Cullen, Miss Peggy Foht, Miss Gail Genkinger and Master David Moser. The Nativity scene decorated the mantle, with Santa Claus distributing gifts from the Christmas tree that decorated the room.

Mrs. Theo Speck, the new club president, named several committees for the coming year. The next meeting will be held at a suburban dining room on the Wilmington road, January 4.

A.U.R. SOCIETY PLANS YULE PARTY

A. U. R. Missionary society of Central Presbyterian church will have a holiday dinner in the home of Miss Alisan Leslie, 131 Sheridan avenue, Tuesday evening, Dec. 12, at six o'clock.

Mrs. J. Glenn Anderson and Mrs. Henry Bratschie are responsible for arrangements. A gift exchange will be one of the features.

DEGREE WOMEN HAVE GALA HOLIDAY PARTY

An evening of merriment was enjoyed when the Academy of Friendship (Degree Women) of the Women of the Moose, chapter 8, held their Christmas party at the Moose home Thursday.

A tureen dinner was held at 6:30 o'clock with Mrs. Josephine Trumble as chairman and Mrs. Clara Hawkw and Mrs. Ina Cleevely as the co-chairmen. Tables were beautifully arranged in the Christmas theme. A gift exchange was a highlight with Mrs. Mabel Schell playing the role of the jovial Santa Claus.

After the dinner a short business session was held with the president, Mrs. Clara Hawk, presiding.

Mrs. Ethel Dibbley, Mrs. Agnes Vignovich, Mrs. Fae Pitzer, Mrs. Huldah Doerr and Mrs. Edna Cox, members of the decorating committee, were responsible for the gaily ornamented tree and other room decorations and the table appointments.

The ladies played cards after the business session, prizes being won by Mrs. Ina Cleevely, Mrs. Rose Bishop, Mrs. Mary Perry and Mrs. Elizabeth Huston.

Mrs. Clara Hawk, president, was given a lovely present from the members of the Academy of Friendship.

The next regular meeting of the auxiliary will be held Wednesday, Dec. 20, at the Moose home, when Moosehaven chapter night will be observed with chairlady Mrs. Mary Welsh and her committee in charge.

The annual Christmas party of the Women of the Moose will be held Wednesday, Dec. 13, at a suburban dining room . A bus will transport the members from the Moose home at 6:15 sharp.

WIMODAUSIS PLANS CHRISTMAS PARTY

Reservations are in charge of the hostesses, Mrs. R. J. Basinger, Highland Heights; Mrs. Roy Warnock, 9 East Laurel avenue; Mrs. Emma Beam, 220 Edgewood avenue; Mrs. Harry G. Boyd, 514 Hillcrest avenue, and Mrs. Lawrence Gibson, 1005 Winslow avenue.

A board meeting will be held at 12:30 o'clock preceding the meeting.

STRICKLER CLASS HAS HOLIDAY PARTY

Gay Christmas arrangements decorated the dining room of the First Baptist church when members of the Laura Strickler Bible class of the church met Thursday evening for their annual Christmas dinner party.

Mrs. Bert McKibben, chairlady of the dinner committee, and her aides, served a delicious banquet. The lovely decorations had been planned by Mrs. J. A. Port and Mrs. Fred Remley.

Guests of the occasion were Mrs. Will Gordon, Mrs. Howard Frew, and Mrs. Leslie Luikart. The invocation was given by Mrs. Gordon.

An entertaining Christmas program followed the dinner, with Mrs. Frank Hay discussing the "Evergreen Tree," comparing it with the Christian life. Mrs. Frew reviewed the book "In The Last Day". Lovely holiday songs were sung by Mrs. Paul Weller, accompanied by Mrs. Luikart at the piano.

A social period followed, with members exchanging gifts. Each guest was presented with a lovely gift, and Mrs. Hay, the teacher, was given a piece of luggage. She responded graciously and closed the meeting with prayer.

LUCILLE BENINCASE SETS WEDDING DATE

Mr. and Mrs. Patsy Benincase of 806 East High street announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Lucille Ann, to Eugene M. Pascarella, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Pascarella, 921 South Mill street.

The "open church" ceremony will be performed on Wednesday, December 27, in St. Vitus church at 9 o'clock.

The bride-elect has chosen her cousin, Miss Anita Donofrio, as her maid of honor. Bridesmaids include Miss Agnes Cepro, cousin of the bride; Miss Constance Conti; Miss Mary Ann Cassella; Miss Marie Boni; and Miss Mary Ann Cepro, cousin of the bride, as junior bridesmaid.

Fred Nocera will serve the groom as best man, while Sam Tardio, Sam Zingaro, John Rozzi, and Cormen Martucci, cousin of the groom, will usher.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Joseph Campbell, Miss Marjorie Riney and Mrs. Gill Burgo. Devotions were led by Miss Riney, with Christmas carols being sung by the group.

Elizabeth Chamberlain, the president, read a Christmas story, "The Little Star". A business meeting was held and the remainder of the evening was spent socially, with a gift exchange featured.

A tasty lunch was served by the hostesses, with Christmas angels as place cards. Twenty-five members were present.

JAMES-PARSHALL VOWS ANNOUNCED

Miss Jacquelyn James, daughter of Mrs. V. C. James of Pass-a-Grill Beach, Fla., and Bert James of New Castle became the bride of Richard J. Parshall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Parshall of Erie, Pa.

Vows were exchanged in the Delaware Baptist church, Erie, on November 30, with Rev. C. Y. Boyd officiating.

READING CIRCLE '91 PLANS YULE PARTY

Dorcas Class Dines

Dorcas class enjoyed a yule tureen dinner Thursday evening in Central Christian church, the holiday theme being used in decorating.

After serving, Mrs. William Stroble led devotions. Later there was an exchange of gifts. Games were directed by Mrs. Isaac Davis with tokens being awarded Mrs. William Dolling and Mrs. Henry Jenkins.

HADASSAH CHAPTER WILL HEAR SPEAKER

New Castle Chapter of Hadassah will hear the tri-state regional president of Hadassah, Mrs. Sidney Munter, of Pittsburgh, on Tuesday afternoon, December 14.

The meeting will be held in Tifereth Israel synagogue at 1:30 p. m. Mrs. Munter, who recently returned from Israel, will have a vital message for the local members.

Her subject will be "Youth Aliyah". Youth Aliyah—the child immigration movement, is part of the Jewish agency which Hadassah represents. There are 10 Youth Aliyah colonies in Israel. These colonies have done great work in giving to the children, education, medical care, clothing and food.

Mrs. Pierson Caplan is the program chairman and Mrs. Gus Slovonsky is the Youth Aliyah chairman. Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting.

LO-COUR-CHEE CLUB MEETS FOR LUNCHEON

Mrs. Gladys McClurg, Wilmington avenue, was hostess to members of the Lo-Cour-Chee club for a 1 o'clock luncheon, Thursday. Tables were beautifully decorated in the holiday motif, tiny favors marking places for the guests. Mrs. Carl Black aided the hostess in serving.

"Five Hundred" was the favored pastime, high score awards being received by Mrs. Roy Nelson, Mrs. Carl Black and Mrs. Earl White.

In two weeks the club will hold a Christmas party and gift exchange at a local tearoom in the form of a 1 o'clock luncheon.

FERRELL-WHITE ENGAGEMENT NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Jess M. Ferrell, of 922 Adams street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary, to Paul White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph White of 527 Harbor street.

No definite wedding plans have been made by the young couple.

NORTH BEAVER CLUB HAS MUSIC PROGRAM

North Beaver Civic club members met Thursday evening in the Mt. Jackson United Presbyterian church, with the president, Mrs. F. M. Webster conducting the business meeting.

The club collect was read by Mrs. Carl Paden. Mrs. Blaine Farver gave a report on the finance committee.

The meeting was turned over to program chairman, Mrs. V. E. Parrott. Vincent Donati introduced three of the Donati students who entertained the group with instrumental solos.

"International Relations," discussed by Mrs. Harold Wilson, was the federation item for the program. Miss Ruth Gilchrist gave a highly interesting talk and demonstration on "Art for Holiday Decoration" which was thoroughly enjoyed by the group.

Later in the evening a tasty lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Glen Tindall, Mrs. Richard Reed, Mrs. Hazel Jones, and Mrs. Donald Fox.

The next meeting will be held January 4 with the place to be announced later.

Amerita Club

Mrs. Rudolph Eagan, of East Winter avenue, received the Amerita club, Thursday evening. Officers were elected with the following results:

President, Mrs. Anthony Villani; treasurer, Angeline Iacobucci; secretary, Mrs. William Manauzzi; and reporter, Mrs. Rudy Eagan.

Mrs. Nicholas Cuscino received a gift in honor of her birthday. Cards were played and prizes were won by Mrs. Andrew Nocera and Mrs. William Manauzzi, the latter also capturing the club token.

Mrs. Mario Frabotta assisted the hostess in serving a dainty lunch. On December 21, Mrs. William Manauzzi, of Summitt street, will be hostess.

Saturday

STAY ALIVE IN DECEMBER

Take time to stay alive in December!

That appeal was issued to Pennsylvania motorists and pedestrians today by T. Elmer Transeau, director of the Bureau of Highway Safety.

"In the holiday rush which characterizes this month, we may easily forget ordinary caution just at a time when extraordinary care is required," he warned.

"Merry-making festivities reach their climax during the final weeks of the year. Parties, Christmas vacations for students, special days off from work, hectic shopping expeditions and increased use of family cars add to the seasonal hazards of darkness, cold weather and slippery pavements."

The state official urged drivers to use common sense and good judgement by adjusting speed to road and weather conditions, lengthening distance between vehicles, using tire chains when advisable, signaling intention to turn, avoiding quick turns and sudden stops, slowing down well in advance of curves and intersections, and applying brakes easily and carefully.

"In hard-packed snow or ice, motorists must limit their speed to the point where they have a safe margin within which to maneuver to avoid colliding with another vehicle or striking a chance-taking pedestrian," Transeau warned.

"A big self-help to safety on snow or ice is the use of anti-skid chains on tires. "Tests by the National Safety Council show that tire chains reduce braking distances on snow or ice 46 per cent for autos and about 65 per cent for trucks and other heavy vehicles.

It was further pointed out that accident studies reveal the winter season's two greatest threats to traffic safety are inadequate traction and reduced visibility.

"Behind the wheel, we must give due allowance for the longer distance needed for stopping, and we must keep windshields clear and headlights working properly to guarantee visibility in bad weather and after dark," Transeau commented.

"When on foot, we must regard the curb line as the danger line, waiting until there is a lull in traffic before crossing streets. December is an extremely dangerous month for both motorists and pedestrians. One reason is the longer hours of darkness and another is the hazards of snow and ice. A person can't be too careful under these conditions."

NOTHING TO DO AT 600

Soon factories may be turning out fighter planes that will do practically everything automatically. At story in the Wall Street Journal starts off by asking, "Is the airplane pilot becoming obsolete?"

Farther down it appears that he will likely be part of the equipment for some time to come, but many of the things he must do now will become obsolete human skills. They will be taken over by electronic brains.

Human reflexes are too slow to match up with the jet speeds of today. A jet pilot is approximately the same physical specimen that the human production line has been turning out as grade A for several thousand years at least. A topnotch Roman charioteer of 100 B. C. would probably be interchangeable, physically and mentally, with a jet pilot fresh from West Point, class of 1950 A. D.

But here is what a guy is up against today. To quote the W.S.J. again, "The distance between two planes flying toward each other at 600 miles an hour diminishes at the rate of a mile in three seconds. Before a pilot can positively identify an enemy plane it's too late to fire the guns—unless he has automatic equipment."

So here's what the planemakers envision:

They see ground radar picking up a "bogie"—unidentified plane. The radar's data as to range, course and speed is fed into the jet's automatic flight system. Pilot takes off. The "brain" works the controls and guides the plane toward the target, identifying it as such. The pilot just keeps on sitting there. Next thing he knows his guided missiles or rockets are being launched. If everything works, the enemy plane gets busted like a clay pigeon.

But wouldn't a fellow like to have more to do while all that is happening?

THE COUNTRY PRESS SAYS

SCOTLAND NECK, N. C., COMMONWEALTH: "The Department of the Interior is insisting on competing with the Virginia Electric and Power Company for the right to build a dam across the Roanoke river at Roanoke Rapids. Here is a definite attempt on the part of the government to be one of the players instead of being willing to sit back on the sidelines and control the rate situation for the benefit of the people."

DILLON, S. C., HERALD: "If the American way of living is not the best, no other nation has been able to prove it."

In View Of News Of The World

'Cut Your Losses' Cry Mounts

A traditional British battle cry—"cut your losses"—mounted in volume in Europe as the western world struggled to find some practical solution of the crisis in Korea.

Pope Pius XII has thrown the weight of his enormous ecclesiastical strength into a new Christmas appeal for peace.

And Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru of India, both a realist and an optimist, has called upon the United States, Great Britain, Soviet Russia and communist China to get together and compose their difference.

He eliminated France for two apparent reasons.

One is that whether the French people like it or not, Great Britain, in the person of Prime Minister Attlee, is now in Washington as joint spokesman for both London and Paris.

The other is that his proposal would at least symbolize an equal balance—two communist nations and two anti-communist powers. He seems to feel that such an arrangement would eliminate the common communist complaint of being in a minority.

Third World War Not Desired

While movements for a peaceful solution continue, it is apparent that Europe, by and large, believes that some interim arrangement would be preferable to a third world war. In other words, a breathing-spell and possible a fresh perspective.

United Nations evacuation moves in northeastern Korea recall one historic occasion when Britain took a hisotric gamble to "cut losses" and succeeded almost miraculously well.

This was at Dunkirk in 1940 when the British expeditionary force and allied armies totaling nearly half a million men were saved from seeming disaster and lived to fight again another day.

There were other instances in the second world war. One was at Tobruk in North Africa. This is a chapter that Winston Churchill, as shown in his memoirs, now looks upon with dismay. But at the time abandonment of this important North African citadel was both one of necessity and a smart military stroke for it saved thousands of irreplaceable fighting men from extinction.

Staged Comeback

In the first world war, the British were defeated by the Germans on the Somme but managed to retrieve and retain the nucleus of their army and staged a magnificent comeback with the United States and France.

Somewhat earlier, Britain sustained a crushing military defeat at the hands of Russia in the Crimea. But here again the British managed to "cut losses", for they embarked upon a diplomatic offensive so powerful and strategic that the czar was forced to abandon his plans to seize Constantinople, now Istanbul.

The Napoleonic wars, of course, are filled with examples of long-range British strategy. The British retired with some semblance of dignity from Spain and the lowlands, only to rebuild and recoup with stunning victories that eventually sent Bonaparte scurrying first to cover and then to lifelong exile.

Tremendous Drawbacks

There is no doubt that the Britisth concept of "strategic withdrawal" has tremendous drawbacks in the present situation.

The fact that the present conflict is in the Orient, with all the complications inherent in "face-saving", is another.

A third is knowledge that communist China, backed by Soviet Russia, is in a position to make heavy demands such as entry into the United Nations and removal of the U. S. seventh fleet from Formosan waters.

Yet there are powerful elements in Europe and elsewhere in the world who believe firmly that the present crisis can be brought to solution short of a long and exhausting war in China or a new global catastrophe.

These are the ones who are saying "cut your losses" for the time being and see what can be done for the future.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

IF CHILD WEIGHS TOO MUCH

Most parents worry over the school child who is overweight because of the handicap of his personality. They rarely picture him as likely to be overweight at 40.

Life insurance companies spend a vast deal of money to warn adults against getting over-heavy. This warning is not just a bit of altruism but a business proposition. They know that overweight tends to shorten life.

Twenty-five years ago fat fathers and mothers supposed they could blame their obesity on their glands; and what they read and heard or even what some physicians told them then led to this comfortable belief. Now the leading medical authorities are saying that excessive weight only rarely has a glandular cause but nearly always is just a matter of eating too much food, especially of the fattening sort.

Intake of Food

But most parents who try to reduce their intake of food find it a hard fight and they often fail in the conflict. Very few of these parents realize that they never learned to control their appetite in childhood and youth. Nor are most parents (fat or thin) aware that there is a problem of controlling the appetite of the child inclined toward obesity. So many mothers are worried over the child who does not eat heartily of every food she prepares for him that she gets great satisfaction, as a rule, from seeing him eat and eat, no matter what his weight is.

More often than not, it seems the child who at ten or twelve is overweight was an eating problem at two or three. Failing to enjoy all the kinds of food prepared for him and failing thus to consume a balanced diet, he finds ways to get more sweets as he grows older. My bulletin, "Eating Problem: Their Prevention and Correction," may be had in a stamped envelope sent me at 235 East 45th street, New York, N. Y.

Then there are some overweight children more than seven or eight years of age who will eat excessively of other fattening foods, as gravy and potatoes, unless they are limited in the amount they may have. But it's psychologically difficult for the mother to curb a child's appetite since it is normally such a pleasure for her to see him eat, and such a compliment to her cooking.

In these days when there are so many sweets to lure the child between meals it's a big problem to curb his intake of these sweets, be he overweight or underweight. As there never was a time when so many children as now have had so much money to spend as they please, they naturally spend liberally on sweets. We can expect the number of school children, therefore of adults, of excessive weight, to increase.

Strangely enough, in all the fine health teaching in our elementary schools, there is practically nothing to induce children to control their appetites. The earlier they learn such self-control the less likely they will become overweight when they are 30, 40 or 50. Such a program should have personality and character values as well as health and aesthetic values.

It's also a curious fact that many mothers are as happy over the fatness of their baby as the farmer is over the fatness of his young porkers.

They Say

WASHINGTON—British Prime Minister Attlee—"You may be certain that in fair and foul weather, where the Stars and Stripes fly in Korea the British flag will fly beside them. We will stand by our duty."

NEW YORK—Gen. Clifton B. Cates, commandant of the Marine Corps—"The men who are making sacrifices in Korea have a right to expect that you and I are doing the very best that our knowledge and ability will permit."

VATICAN CITY—Pope Pius XII—"Man's genius—destined for other achievements—has devised war instruments of such power as to awaken a feeling of horror in any honest man."

WASHINGTON—Gen. Carlos P. Romulo, Philippines foreign affairs secretary—"What is at stake in Korea is the freedom of man, his dignity, his infinite worth as a person, and his inalienable right to live according to his conscience and his nature. . ."

Just Folks

THE GIVEN WORD

Your given word is precious stuff,
A treasure, son, that you must cherish.
One small betrayal is enough,
Upon the instant it will perish.

Your promise is a fragile thing.
You must be careful when you make it
And guard it, son, remembering
You can't repair it once you break it.

Easily said is: "That I'll do."
But when to any one you've said it
Then to your given word be true.
For that is all there is to "credit."

From Me To You

By MESEEALL

Too damn much talk . . . not enough action . . . in government circles . . . It would be much easier to take, all the talking about curtailing expenses if some real action was taken. Some time ago the order came down that the Postal department would cut back some services, because the system was losing money. What's the difference if it is losing money . . . it couldn't possibly lose as much money as the new employees being added to the government payroll are losing. If you were to check personally in Washington . . . at the various many agencies established in that city . . . you would find two to three employees doing the job that one employee could easily do.

* * *

Everytime some crack-pot has an idea . . . of an investigation, which very seldom leads to any direct action . . . the budget is raised and some worthwhile project is slashed. The Postal department needs more money . . . OK let's give it more money or stop talking . . . This cutting back of postal service will not make our taxes any less . . . and we will have limited service to boot. Now the post offices close early before a holiday . . . haven't enough money to keep open . . . If the business man operated his store like that . . . He would be laughed out of town.

* * *

And anyhow . . . what will all these employees of the federal government be doing if business is taxed out-of-business. Who will pay their salaries . . . not wages . . . just plain salaries? Yes, it's time to act . . . to communicate with your Congressman . . . a new bunch are about to meet in Washington . . . tell them to tell Harry Truman to wisen up.

* * *

Right now groups are asking that changes be made in our Secretary of Defense office . . . there are other changes that could stand to be changed also . . . Something is wrong but we must all be careful in our thinking and not permit ideas to be planted that will tend to break this United States up into different camps . . . we can still make changes but we must always remember our basic principals . . . The freedoms that we have and work to preserve those freedoms.

CHAIN LIGHTNING!

Washington Calling

(By MARQUIS CHILDS)

Warning Signs Are Marked

WASHINGTON — Dec. 8— Through all the ups and downs of the diplomatic struggle with Red China one American official has kept a determined hold on fundamental realities. He is John Foster Dules, Republican adviser to Secretary of State Dean Acheson.

Dulles carefully planned at the United Nations an approach to the Communist delegation for a possible compromise to end the Chinese intervention in Korea. He was aware, however, that the objective of General Wu Hsu-Chuan and his delegation might be solely to make hostile propaganda.

Now Dulles is leaving his U.N. post to return to the State Department for what is likely to prove an even more important assignment. In charge of the Korean issue at Lake Success and delegated to direct the drafting of a Japanese Treaty, Dulles has in effect been chiefly responsible for formulating Asian policy.

Significant Conference

It is significant that before the present change Dulles conferred in Washington first with Acheson and others in the department and then with Senators Taft and Millikin at the capitol. If they were convinced of the importance of Dulles' role in Asia, these two Republican leaders could hold the bulk of the members of their party in the Senate for cooperation on Asian policy.

The part played by Dulles in the whole Korean matter is sometimes forgotten. Visiting Seoul three days before the North Korean attack occurred, he told the Korean parliament that if the Communists launched an invasion, the Republic of Korea would not have to stand alone. In Tokyo at the time of the assault, he stated his belief that both the United States and the United Nations would resist the unwarranted aggression across the 38th parallel.

Bold Thing To Do

This was a bold thing to do since, as Dulles well knew, many military men believed Korea to be indefensible in the event of an all-out Communist attack. It has been frequently reported that the National Security Council concluded more than two years ago, with both military and diplomatic members agreeing, that American troops should be withdrawn from Korea since a limited force could not possibly hold the peninsula. Dulles has admitted that in the plane on the way back from Tokyo he had some bad hours wondering whether the decision would be taken to defend the Korean Republic.

Dulles has never minimized the threat of Chinese intervention. He has stressed the need to try to meet the realities of Communist China with its vast military manpower with a corresponding realism in American policy. This stress on realism marks Dulles' book, "War or Peace," published three months before the Korean outbreak.

If the outcome of the Truman-Attlee talks makes it possible, Dulles will fly to Japan probably before Chfistmas. This will be in recognition of the change in the status of Japan in the light of the developing Korean disaster.

Japan Is Menaced

Japan is immediately menaced, especially in view of the fact that most of the American forces stationed in Japan were committed in Korea. In view of what is happening, it is in some respects correct to say that Japan now becomes what Korea was before June 25—a major target of Chinese Communist ambition. Foreign Minister Chou En-Lai's latest propaganda attack from Peiping was devoted to American intentions with respect to Japan, coupled with the insistence that Japan must remain disarmed.

This is one reason why a tentative decision has been taken to defer the conclusion of a peace treaty with Japan. Dulles will resurvey the situation in the light of the devastating changes occurring from hour to hour.

Will Follow Dulles

If the Republicans show wisdom at this hour, they will follow Dulles' realistic lead. It is a time for the harshest kind of realism if we are now to save what can be saved and avoid committing our force in a part of the world where it can never buttress the national security.

Senator William Knowland of California, in arguing for what would be in effect all-out war with Communist China, spoke with a stronger logic than the China-firsters. As he pointed out, Knowland had supported every move for strengthening Western Europe and he now asks whether it is less important to defend free peoples in Asia than it is in Europe.

The answer—the hard core of realism — is related directly to American resources to wage a major war of invasion across 10,000 miles of ocean. It is also related, and here it seems to me Knowland was on the weakest ground, to the question of whether Asiatics want to be saved by American power.

To disregard the realities for however noble a motive is to court ultimate and final disaster. Other civilizations have gone down in overweening pride that far outstretched their capacity. The warning signs are so clearly marked for our time.

One Man's Opinion

By Walter Kiernan

Maybe if we're very quiet and don't all think at once we can keep some pinhead from proposing "unconditional surrender" to Red China.

If you were looking back for troublesome phrases of the last dozen years you could start with "all aid short of war" and work up through "unconditional surrender" to "police action."

"All aid short of war" meant the other fellow wasn't supposed to start anything . . . but he did.

"Unconditional surrender" meant he should stop in his tracks . . . but he didn't.

And for the Domestic blooper of the century let us not forget "52 for 40" . . . our post-hostilities introduction to economics on the halfskull.

The way that one worked out we all got 52 gray hairs for our previous 40.

State Police Say:

The most important people in the world ride in your car. Your family, your friends—yourself. What better reason then, as we enter the hazardous winter season, to take inventory of our driving habits—then improve the good ones and eliminate the dangerous ones.

A milk soup makes a nutritious luncheon dish for school-age children. Cream of tomato soup, for instance, teams well with many sandwich fillings—egg, peanut butter, cream cheese.

Rule We Broke In Korea

(By HOLMES ALEXANDER)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 8.—Two Joe McCarthys—the Wisconsin Senator and the ex-manager of the Boston Red Sox—have in different ways contributed to "reexamination" of the Korean disaster. The Senator's mite so far has been a continuation of his intemperate attacks upon the Truman Administration. The manager some while ago enunciated a baseball rule which is not without its application in war. The rule, which was posted in the Red Sox dressing quarters, read somewhat as follows:

"When you decide to slide a base—slide!"

Can Learn From This Maxim

Reexamination of what happened in Korea suggests that we can learn something from this sporting maxim. Broken ankles and twisted knee joints, Manager McCarthy used to say, usually occur when a base runner gets the hesitations about throwing himself into a slide. But the slide which is whole-hearted and without mental or physical reservations usually carries the performer into the base intact.

As everybody knows, neither the U.S. nor the U.N. was wholeheartedly committed to the Korean intervention. The President always called it a police action—never a war. He received in mid-summer an additional $10 billion and sweeping powers to control prices, wages and production. He did use the money—but has hardly used the powers at all. The President began the police action by ordering Gen. MacArthur to employ air and naval units against the North Koreans—but he didn't authorize ground troops till later. Our spokesmen at Lake Success (whose word was pretty much law at first) told MacArthur to march to the 38th parallel—but not beyond it. Later on, the goal was designated as the Yalu River—but MacArthur was not allowed to bomb enemy installations beyond the river or to pursue enemy aircraft into that "privileged sanctuary." There was, to summarize, a long list of hesitations, half-actions, maybe-so commitments and second-thought strategy. Not many bases are stolen, or wars won, on such a philosophy.

Even More Important

Even more important—and, by hindsight, more disastrous—was the hesitant nature of the diplomacy in the Korean affair. MacArthur advised us to occupy Formosa—but Mr. Truman preferred to "neutralize" it. This process called for constant patrol by the Seventh Fleet, a Navy unit which was thus subtracted from the main Korean effort. Our Lake Success spokesmen called upon the UN members to furnish troops—but at the same time declined troops from Nationalist China, a UN member. And even when calling upon some 60-odd nations to contribute troops, there were no quotas set and no plain words of urgency put to use. Never was there an all-out, wholehearted, unhesitant demand that all the anti-Communist nations make military contributions that could be called worthy of the worthy cause.

There are well-known reasons, of course, why some of these things were left half-done or undone. But such reasons relate to the decision of June and not to the disaster of November. The first part of Manager McCarthy's rule—"When you decide to slide a base—slide!"—is just as important as the second part. It almost goes without saying that the decision to go to Korea meant that we should go there with the purpose and expectation of winning. There would be no sense in choosing this particular battlefield unless we had the intent, ability and determination to make it a victorious battlefield.

All-Out Feeling About Korea?

But did the President ever have that all-out feeling about Korea? We recently heard Gen. Bradley's statement that the Korean fighting had stripped us of all defense except the atomic bomb. Even if this statement is not literally true, it suggests a good reason for doubts about the Korean intervention. Is any "police action" worth jeopardizing the military defense against a much bigger enemy. Certainly the European UN members never thought so. It is hard to imagine that Mr. Truman really expected them to leave the Iron Curtain borderland unprotected and rush whole-heartedly into a Korean "police action." Yet anything less than whole-heartedness was sure to be less than useless.

Post mortems need not to be acrimonious affairs. They are only worthwhile when they serve to discover the causes of a disaster and to prevent a recurrence. For the most part this is the attitude that prevails in Washington, for the tragedy of Korea is bipartisan and all-inclusive. The idea, already recommended by Senator McCarthy, of impeaching the President is plain nonsense. But there is a good deal of sense in the rule of the other McCarthy. Next time we decide to slide a base—let's slide!

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

So many explanations of Communism have been given that it seems silly to expound another one.

But, in all the maze of economical, political, sociological and other scientific theses, the simplest cause of Communism has been overlooked.

Communism is neither economical, political nor sociological.

Communism is the outlet for a terrific inferiority complex. It is Failure envying Success and trying to destroy it.

Communism cannot thrive where there is happiness, nor can happiness exist where there is Communism.

Why are so many rich people Communists?

Wealth alone cannot produce happiness.

I have investigated the lives of a number of wealthy Communists.

In every case they were frustrated people.

Some had no social graces, no manners, no poise. They were shunned by those with whom they wanted to associate on terms of equality.

Some were barred from membership in clubs they wanted to join. They were not admitted to certain resorts where they would have liked to display their riches. Some felt envious of others with more talent, better looks, a sharper sense of humor, greater popularity. Alaways there was an inner feeling of inadequacy.

"What's the use?" they said to themselves and began desperately to look for another society, a better way of life, an Eden in which they were as good as anybody else.

Take the Russians. There is Inferiority Complex personified!

With all their political and military power they know that they are inferior to those whom they profess to despise.

But we are told by those who know, they live in filth and disorder. Cleanliness may be next to Godliness. But these Russians have no use of either God or bathtubs.

They hate us and want to destroy us, not for what we are, but for what they are not and cannot be.

Afraid of the truth, they live in deadly fear that their people may learn the truth.

A young fellow in Montreal just wrote me a pitiful letter about how he became a Communist and how, when he awoke, he stopped being one.

His folks sent him to college, but they had no money. When he graduated he had developed a beautiful snob complex. He thought he was better than his fellow men.

He tried to get a job. But his college diploma did not get him one. He got sore at the world and at the "capitalists." He turned Communist.

Then he enlisted in the Royal Canadian Airforce and went overseas.

In battle he learned about patriotism, about heroism, about friendship, about principles, about decency, about GOD.

When he came back he was no longer a Communist.

He COULD NOT be—because only a spiritual bankrupt can be a Communist.

Medical Scientists Gather To Exchange Information On Acth

CHICAGO, Dec. 8.—(INS)—Some 300 of the world's most distinguished medical scientists gathered in Chicago today to exchange information and plan further research with Acth, the miracle Hormone drug.

In all, 95 different papers will be read reflecting the two major lines of research with Adrenocorticetropic Hormone—the technical name which means that it works by stimulating the outer core of the tiny adrenal glands to produce Hormones, essential to life and health.

One body of papers will deal primarily with research being done to discover just which diseases are affected by Acth and how to use it.

A second will concentrate on the role of the drug, made from the pituitary glands of swine, as a research instrument in throwing light on the mystery of the function of the adrenals.

Name Two More Wolves Officers

At the annual election of officers conducted Tuesday evening by the Wolves club, the first and second vice president were also elected and they are Joseph Bordonaro, Jr., and Angelo Frediani, respectively.

The election was at The Castleton, and a dinner preceded the proceedings. Other officers elected were announced in Thursday's paper.

John Siple Walter Dies At Youngstown

John S. Walter, aged 52, of 47 E. Earl Avenue, Youngstown, died Thursday suddenly of a heart attack. He was born January, 1898, in Pittsburgh, Pa. Mr. Walter was the son of Rev. J. Grant and Bertha Siple Walter, and was a salesman for the Outdoor Advertising Company of Youngstown.

He was a member of the Kiwanis Club, Kiwanis Singers, Home Builders Class and the Trinity Methodist church. He leaves his wife, the former Myrtle Elkins, a son, John of Youngstown, a stepmother, Mrs. J. Grant Walter of Pittsburgh, and a sister, Miss Mary Louise Walter of Pittsburgh.

Funeral services will be held at 3:30 p. m. Saturday at the Shriver-Allison South Side Home, Youngstown where friends may call this evening. Dr. R. J. Humbert will officiate and the interment will be the Lake Park Cemetery, Youngstown.

Norwalk Truck Line Plans Safety Party

Norwalk Truck Line company will hold their annual Safety and Christmas party on Saturday evening, December 16, at 7 o'clock in a local hall.

A brief safety meeting will be conducted, at which time each driver who has not had an accident for at least one year will receive a safety award. A buffet lunch will be served, with dancing to be enjoyed to a local orchestra.

Out of town guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Dick Boose, safety director of Norwalk Truck Line company, Norwalk, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Baker, assistant safety director, Norwalk, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Richards, sales manager, Akron, Ohio; William J. Greer, secretary-treasurer of Local union 261, New Castle, Pa.; and Armand Cesa, Norwalk Truck Line, Cleveland, Ohio.

Man Engaged In Research With Edison Dies At Oakmont

OAKMONT, Pa., Dec. 8.—(INS)—James Duncan MacLean, 86, who engaged in electric lamp research with Thomas A. Edison, died today at his Oakmont home.

A retired electrical engineer and draftsman, he also had engaged in electric lamp research for the Westinghouse Electric corporation.

Outline Hospital Functions Under Civilian Defense

Hospital preparations for the care of casualties that may be expected in the event of war, were outlined by Abraham Oseroff, chairman of the Hospital Division of Civil Defense, at a meeting of Western Pennsylvania hospital representatives Thursday, in the Hotel William Penn, in Pittsburgh.

The Pittsburgh area division is headed by Ross Leffler, Civil Defense Coordinator, which includes 29 Western Pennsylvania counties.

The effects of an atomic blast in various cities in the district was discussed, with the number of casualties which might be anticipated, and the facilities which would be available for caring for them. New Castle could expect over 4,000 casualties, and more than 8,000 pints of whole blood would be required. There would probably be over 2,000 deaths, it was stated.

On the Hospital Division for Civil Defense, J. F. Freidheim, director of the Jameson Memorial hospital, in New Castle, was named chairman of District Four. County chairmen in this district included: W. E. Tucker, administrator of the Rochester General hospital, Beaver county; Miss Jane M. Boyd, administrator of the Butler County Memorial hospital, Butler county; and Miss Mary B. Miller, administrator of the Ellwood City hospital, Lawrence county.

To Have Swing Lobby Tonight

Swing Lobby will be enjoyed this evening and Saturday evening in the New Castle high school gym, Mrs. Frank Gribben, director, announced.

Dancing will be from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock.

Says Price And Wage Controls Not Yet Needed

By PHILLIP J. PECK
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8 — The government's top stabilization officials said today that price-wage controls are unneeded at this time and estimated it would require 60 to 90 days to build a staff to administer such a program.

Price Administrator Michael Disalle told a news conference that stabilization officials still hope mandatory curbs will not be necessary but he warned that profiteers or hoarders will be dealt with harshly.

Economic Stabilizer Alan Valentine also added a warning to both industry and labor that the government can and will throw back unreasonable price-wage increases.

Disalle, Valentine and Wage Board Chairman Cyrus S. Ching analyzed the inflation picture as President Truman and his advisers discussed the question of whether to declare a national emergency and order full mobilization to meet the world crisis.

The trio of economic stabilization officials admitted that price-wage controls are being planned but they declined to say when such curbs might have to be imposed "because we don't know how fast the mobilization effort is going to be stepped up."

All three officials pledged a vigorous voluntary controls program. Disalle declared:

"Hoarders and profiteers are enemies of the nation. . . . "These internal enemies will be hunted out and exposed."

RENT CEILINGS LIFTED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(INS)—Housing Expediter Tighe E. Woods removed rent ceilings in seven communities in four states today.

Controls were removed after local governing bodies ruled they were no longer needed in San Rafael and Santa Clara, Calif.; Lansing and Saginaw, Mich., and Mt. Healthy and Wyoming, Ohio.

Philadelphia Is Cited As 'Cleanest'

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 8—(INS)—Philadelphians proudly accepted the honor today of having the nation's "cleanest town" among cities over 500,000 population.

Pittsburgh was runner-up in the contest.

The announcement giving Philadelphia the title for the second straight year, was announced by Gen. Joseph F. Battley, president of the national clean up, paint up, fix up bureau.

The town's citizens were credited with performing 1,720,000 different cleaning, painting and fixing jobs, according to some 500,000 reports distributed and collected by school children last May.

Bar Santa Claus From Big Parade In Reading, Pa.

READING, Pa., Dec. 8.—(INS)—The Reading Junior Chamber of Commerce barred Santa Claus from today's big community Christmas parade.

"We have nothing against Santa Claus," explained Robert Cottom, president of the chamber. "But we feel that Christmas has become too commercialized. People are losing their persepective of this most joyous and solemn Christian holiday."

He said letters from citizens back the chamber's stand that "this year, with all the war worries, Christmas should mean a lot more than just a time to think about giving and getting gifts."

More than 75 churches in the area were invited to participat in the parade with floats showing scenes of the nativity, the story of the three wise men, and groups of carol singers. Business firms were not included in the parade.

And the bands and bugle corps were asked to play only "real" Christmas music.

Gen. MacArthur Denies Report

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(INS)—Gen. MacArthur flatly denied reports today that some U. S. troops had broken and fled in disorder before the Chinese Communist offensive in Korea.

The far eastern commander sent a message to army headquarters in Washington to counter a broadcast to the effect that the U. S. Second Infantry Division abandoned its equipment and ran from the Chinese. MacArthur said:

"I trust that you will deny as completely false the story quoted.

"It does a grave injustice to our forces and is calculated to give aid and comfort to the enemy."

The broadcast referred to the U. S. unit only as "the covering force," but a spokesman explained that this would be the Second Infantry Division.

The spokesman said "of course the division suffered very heavy losses, and lost some of its equipment, but there was no rout."

J. & L. Steel Corp. Plans Expansion

CLEVELAND, Dec. 8.—(INS)—Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. has earmarked a large portion of a new 220 million dollar expansion program for the proposed enlargement of its Otis works in Cleveland.

According to company officials, $28 million is to be spent during a 14-month period on an expansion project which would enable the Otis works to turn out about 265,000 more tons of finished steel.

J&L hires about 3,000 workers locally. It is believed that 400 to 500 more steelworkers would be employed to operate the new open hearths and blast furnaces, which are expected to boost the company's ingot capacity by 360,000 net tons annually.

The expansion, scheduled for completion in early 1952, is linked to an agreement between J&L and General Motors Corp., whereby GM will lend the steel company the $28 million for its Cleveland project.

Foremost Expert On Atomic Bomb Effects To Testify

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(INS)—The world's foremost expert on what an atomic bomb can do to human beings comes to Capitol Hill this afternoon to testify on the administration's three billion dollar civil defense program.

Dr. Shields Warren, head of the Atomic Energy Commission's division of biology and medicine, will appear before a Senate Armed Services subcommittee studying the bill.

Oscar Ewing, federal security administrator, also is on the witness list.

Dr. Warren is an expert on effects of blast, heat and atomic radiation on human beings. He conducted surveys at Hiroshima and Nagasaki, and was in charge of the test with animals at the Bikini atomic tests.

Next week, the committee will hear from spokesmen of state governments, which are expected to plan which the administration proposes to set up under a federal administrator.

A spokesman for the defense department told the committee that the military does not want to take over the civil defense job.

Examine 1,000 Who Handle Food, Drinks

Dr. W. A. Womer, city health superintendent, examined approximately 1,000 food and drinks handlers here up to December 1, this year, according to a study of health department statistics today. Those who handle beverages and foodstuffs must be examined as to their physical condition, twice annually.

February High Month For Parking Tickets

February was high for the year so far, insofar as parking tickets were concerned, 1,096 having been given to motorists who broke the city ordinance.

HARMONY ON SOUR NOTE

CHICAGO, Dec. 8.—(INS)—The harmony of the Orphei Singing Club of Chicago hit a high but sour note today—a $50,000 slander suit filed in superior court which names the club president and three other members.

The complainant is Mrs. Ellen T. Carlson, 41, who alleges that a member of the club said "she is not a lady" and following the remark, the club adopted a resolution barring her.

High School Choral Groups Plan Concert

Combined choral organizations of the senior high school music department will present a Christmas concert of choral music on the evening of Dec. 20 at 8 o'clock in the George Washington junior high school, it was announced by Edward Book, supervisor of vocal music.

Two cantatas in keeping with the Christmas season are to be presented.

The first one is "Christ Is Born", composed by Joseph W. Clokey. This cantata is to be presented by the combined girls' choir, boys' chorus, and mixed chorus groups. Solos and a duet are featured in this presentation, which will find approximately 70 young people striving to bring the Christmas message in song to you.

The second part of this Christmas concert features the a cappella choir of 60 voices, singing "The Song of Christmas". In this second part of the concert appear solos and quartet work to lend variation to the program.

These high school choristers have been rehearsing for several weeks now in order to present this Christmas concert.

There is no admission fee for the concert and all are cordially invited.

C.T.P. Auxiliary Plans Noel Party

The annual Christmas party of the C. T. P. auxiliary of the B. & O. railroad, with a gift exchange, will be held in the Green room of the Y.W.C.A. on January 3, at one p.m.

Plans were discussed at the meeting held Wednesday in the Green room of the Y.W.C.A., with Mrs. Ralph Audino, president, in charge. Christmas decorations were used in the table appointments for the delicious luncheon. Mrs. Oscar Murphy and Mrs. Anna McPeak were the hostesses.

New officers were elected at the meeting as follows: president, Mrs. O. F. Shaffer; vice president, Mrs. A. G. Skundor; secretary, Mrs. J. H. Bingham; treasurer, Mrs. Oscar Murphy; sunshine committee, Mrs. Ray Muder.

Mrs. Skundor won the attendance prize and prizes during the informal social period went to Mrs. Frank Logue and Mrs. Anna McPeak.

Pledge Local Students To Music Honorary

Frank D. Taylor, Jr., 498 Neshannock boulevard, New Castle, and Raymond Melcer, 911 Marshall avenue, New Castle, have been pledged to Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, honorary national music fraternity of the Dana School of Music of Youngstown college. Fraternity officers have set Friday, Dec. 15, as the date for informal initiation of pledges, and the formal initiation and banquet are scheduled for Saturday, Dec. 16. Mr. Taylor is a sophomore and Mr. Melcer is a freshman in the Dana School of Music.

Considering that facial appeal is a dominant factor in our daily social contact, the humped nose is generally regarded as a deformity.

To Display New 1951 Chevrolet Saturday

That much talked of 1951 Chevrolet has arrived in the city and will be displayed for the first time in New Castle Saturday at the Keystone-Chevrolet Company, 210 West Washington street.

Added safety, greater driving ease and fresh re-styling are the high spots of the 1951 Chevrolets. Important improvements and changes are featured in both chassis and body, ranging from the "biggest brakes in the low price field" to extensive design and innovations that make the car appear much longer and lower than any previous model.

Powerglide automatic transmission has been refined for the latest models, optional on deLuxe models only. Fourteen passenger body types are included in the 1951 line. In addition to a more luxurious interior treatment, Chevrolet is offering a more beautiful and attractive assortment of colors.

A few of the other features include: recessed control knobs in the drivers compartment, shielding of the windshield from instrument light reflection, increase in steering gear ratio to relocated brake pedals.

Executive Group Of Home Auxiliary To Meet On Monday

The specia meeting of the executive committee of the Margaret Henry Home auxiliary, which was postponed recently because of the snowstorm, will be held Monday, December 11, at the home of the president, Mrs. Richard Marquis, Walmo.

The next regular meeting of the auxiliary will be held Monday, January 8, in the Guild room of Trinity Episcopal church, the recently scheduled meeting having also been postponed due to the weather.

Source Of Mysterious Virus Being Sought At Mercersburg, Pa.

MERCERSBURG, Pa., Dec. 8.—(INS)—The source of a mysterious virus carried either by air or recent flood waters was hunted today by Mercersburg health officials following nauseating attacks suffered by more than 1,200 persons.

The non-fatal virus will run its course in a day of two, according to Dr. Louis Hitchroth of the borough health board.

"A great number of the people said nothing about it," he added.

"I am told on reliable authority that similar attacks have been reported elsewhere," Hitchroth said.

Drug stores reported depleted stocks of remedies for upset stomachs and abdominal pains.

The physician said "too much furore" has been attached to the virus which broke out in the south central Pennsylvania community Tuesday. Officials, however, have solicited the aid of the State Health department in an attempt to identify the virus.

Bessemer Rotary To Sing Dec. 20

Under the sponsorship of the Bessemer Rotary club, a Community sing will be held December 20 at 6:30 p.m. The chairman of the event is Rev. Ahlstead, assisted by S. Carr, Charles A. Weitz, Tony Navarro and Elmer Shaffer. A treat for the children will follow the singing.

L.A.B. CLUB WITH MRS. JOHN SHAFFER

Following the short business meeting, cards were enjoyed, with Mrs. Lucy Covert and Mrs. Flora Cunningham receiving prizes. The occasion also marked the 83rd birthday of Mrs. Cunningham.

The hostess, as Santa Claus, presented each member with a gift, and gifts were exchanged by the group. A tempting lunch was served by the hostess, aided by Mrs. John Sweet and Mrs. Kit Vaughn. A tiny tree centered the prettily arranged table. Several favorite Christmas carols were sung by the ladies.

On December 21 the club will meet at the home of Mrs. Anna McClimans, Jefferson street, with Mrs. Lucy Covert as hostess.

Reunited Ladies League

Mrs. James Phillips, Bell avenue, received members of the Reunited Ladies League, Thursday.

Mrs. Edward Campbell, Mrs. Henry Hartman and Mrs. Ralph Phillips were awarded prizes for "500". Lunch was served by the hostess, with the aid of Mrs. Ralph Phillips. On December 21 the ladies will have a Christmas dinner at a local tearoom.

FRIENDSHIP CLASS HAS YULE PARTY

Friendship class of Highland U. P. church was entertained delightfully at a yule dinner Wednesday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shrefler, Young street, the holiday theme being used in decorating. Mrs. Shrefler is the teacher of the group, composed of young married people. After serving meetings of the new year were planned.

Charles Andrews, of the Bell Telephone company, showed the moving picture, "Timber and 'The Chicago Tribune'." Carols were sung with Mrs. William Cox as accompanist. Ann Shrefler pleased with a group of piano selections.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Harris, East street, will entertain in February.

MISS DOLORES COX ENGAGED TO MARRY

Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Cox, Union street, Pulaski, announce the engagement of their eldest daughter, Dolores Ann, to George Edward Smith, son of the late Frank H. Smith and grandson of Mrs. Katherine Watson, Highland Road, Sharon, Pa.

No definite wedding date has been set.

MARINO-HAGAN WEDDING NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Marino of 715 North Mercer street announce the marriage of their daughter, Phyl, to Dick Hagan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hagan of 508 Norwood avenue, this city.

The ceremony was performed Friday, Nov. 24, at 11:30 a. m. by Justice of the Peace H. M. Reynolds. The double ring service was used.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ludwig of New Castle were their only attendants. Mrs. Ludwig as matron of honor wore a cocoa brown silk crepe street length dress with matching hat and gloves. Her corsage was of yellow and rust mums.

Mr and Mrs. Hagan dispensed with a wedding trip due to the snowstorm, and at present are residing at the Belvedere apartments, 126 North Cochran Way.

Mrs. Hagan, a graduate of New Castle high school June, 1944, is also a graduate of the Jameson Memorial hospital school of nursing. She is at present employed as graduate nurse in the operating room of the Jameson Memorial hospital.

Mr. Hagan, a graduate of the New Castle high school, is a veteran of the U. S. Army, World War I. He is employed as machinist at the Bossert company, this city.

JOLLYETTES HONOR SEVERAL MEMBERS

Birthday or anniversary gifts were presented to Mrs. Kay O'Leary, Mrs. Betty Wheaton, and Mrs. June Bacon from their secret sisters when members of the Jollyettes club met Wednesday evening. Mrs. Bill Wilcox of Matilda avenue entertained the group in her home.

"Five hundred" was the pastime, with prizes awarded to Mrs. Charene Gilbert, Mrs. June Bacon, and Mrs. Peg Alduk. A delicious lunch was later served by the hostess.

Plans were made for a Christmas party to be held December 13 at a suburban dining room, with a gift exchange featuring the program.

The next regular meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Peg Alduk, Guadalcanal road, January 3.

East Brook U. P. Society

Women's Missionary society of East Brook U. P. church had an all day quilting Thursday at the home of Mrs. Earl Pettitt, East Brook.

Mrs. W. J. McKee and Mrs. Carl Richael aided the hostess in serving a tasty luncheon. Using "Christ, the Son of God" as her theme, Mrs. Maida Houston led devotions.

WILLING WORKERS OFFICERS ELECTED

Members of the Willing Workers Bible class of First Congregational church, held their Christmas party recently with Mrs. Ann Davies of East Washington street, as hostess.

The meeting was in charge of the president, Mrs. Harry Davies. The class had their annual election of officers, as follows: president, Mrs. Joseph Richards; vice-president, Miss Margaret Davies; secretary, Mrs. T. J. Jones; reporter, Mrs. Griff Thomas; treasurer, Mrs. Ben Fowler; flower treasurer, Mrs. Elizabeth Coughlin; business committee, Mrs. H. T. Jones, Mrs. Rees Price, Mrs. William Francis.

Diversions of the evening were games, chat, and exchange of gifts. Prizes were captured by Mrs. Rees Price and Mrs. Harry Davies.

A delicious lunch was served in the dining room by the hostess, on table beautifully arranged in yuletide motif. Mrs. Ann Virtue and Miss Mae Thomas assisted the hostess.

Next meeting of the group will be in the home of Mrs. Joseph Richards.

MODERN EIGHTS PLAN CHRISTMAS PARTY

At the home of Mrs. Betty Rozzi, of 211 South Walnut street, the Modern Eight club gathered on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Mary Rozzi, president, read the rules and regulations.

Later the hostess served a tasty lunch, aided by special guests, Mrs. Julia Rozzi and Miss Frances Stefano, each receiving a beautiful gift from the hostess.

Monte Carlo cards was the pastime of the evening. The door prize was won by Mrs. Mary Doher.

CRAIN-McGAFFIC ENGAGEMENT NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Claude W. Crain of 105 North Crawford avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter Garnet Faith Crain to Joseph Arthur McGaffic, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. McGaffic of 1511 Jackson avenue.

The engagement will terminate in a wedding to take place early in the new year.

MUSIC CLUB TO MEET ON JANUARY 30

Mrs. Jacob Jordan, program chairman for Music club, announces that the next meeting will be held Tuesday, Jan. 30, with the same hostess and the same program participants.

The program for November was canceled because of the snowstorm.

THOMAS-MENTZER BETROTHAL KNOWN

Mr. and Mrs. Merle C. Thomas of R.D. 6, Butler road, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter Shirley, to Jack Mentzer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mentzer of New Castle-Ellwood road. The wedding will take place in January.

Grace Bible W. M. S.

Mrs. Benjamin Gardner, East New Castle, entertained the Women's Missionary society of Grace Bible Community church at her home Thursday evening. After the hostess led devotions, Mrs. Wilbur Henry, Altoona, a special guest, offered prayer.

Mrs. Clyde Daugherty gave a report of the work being accomplished at the City Rescue Mission. Mrs. Jack Boggs told of her missionary activities in Tennessee last summer. Mrs. George Fissel offered the closing prayer.

Mrs. Edward McCowan aided Mrs. Gardner in serving a tempting lunch. There was also an exchange of gifts. Mrs. James Reed will be co-hostess, January 4, when Mrs. Harvey Ketzel, East New Castle, entertains.

Two Parties Report Election Expenses Of $3,000,000 In State

HARRISBURG, Dec. 8.—(INS)—General election expenses of the Republican and Democratic parties today exceeded $2,900,000.

Reports on file with the state elections bureau, while incomplete, indicated the final figure will top $3,000,000. Yesterday was the deadline for filing reports with the bureau.

Democrats spent approximately $1,000,000 while Republicans accounted for the balance of the reported expenditures in the election highlighted by the balloting for a U. S. senator and governor.

The Republican state committee listed expenditures of more than $595,000, while the GOP finance committee reported spending approximately $801,000. In addition, the Philadelphia GOP city committee tossed in more than $350,000 while the Allegheny county committee anted up more than $161,000.

The Democratic state committee reported spending more than $325,000 and the party's Allegheny county committee listed approximately $129,000. The Democratic city committee in Philadelphia put up more than $341,000, the Lackawanna county Democratic organization spent about $44,000 and the balance was doled out in the remaining counties.

Extension Of Truck Drivers Strike In Pittsburgh, Threat

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 8.—(INS)—The city of Pittsburgh was threatened today with a general truck drivers' strike unless police protection is removed from delivery trucks of three struck department stores.

The threat was voiced yesterday at a meeting between Mayor David L. Lawrence and officers of about 25 unions represented by the CIO Steel City Industrial Union Council and the AFL Central Labor Union.

The labor groups complained of the "over-aggressiveness" of police assigned to protect trucks of the three struck department stores. They are Gimbels, Kaufmanns and Hornes.

Legion Of Honor Completes Plans For Yule Party

Plans were completed for the annual Christmas dinner party of the Legion of Honor for members and their families, which will take place in the Cathedral Wednesday evening, December 15, at the semi-monthly meeting held last evening.

Karl Chandler is general chairman for the event, and after the dinner there will be a program of entertainment, with a country store, and gifts for the kiddies.

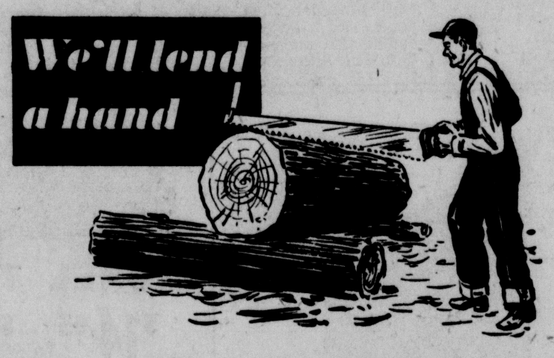

Reports were made on recent activities, including the annual bazaar and the reunion. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Experimentation shows a 20 per cent increase in energy following the consumption of honey.

Johnson Bronze Co. Veteran Employes Will Be Honored

Two gentlemen with an outstanding record of service at the Johnson Bronze company will be honored at that company's annual veterans party Saturday evening in the Cathedral auditorium.

Anthony Frank, 837 Franklin avenue, and Salvatore Scarnati, recently retired of 230 Shadyside, will receive gold watches in recognition of more than 39 years of continuous service.

Fourteen other employees will be presented with diamond studded gold pins. This group has completed 25 years of service.

Gold, silver and bronze pins, representing 20, 15 and 10 years' service will be presented at a later date to more than 125 other veterans.

More than 750 veterans of more than 10 years and their escorts are expected for the turkey dinner beginning at 6:30.

Following the dinner portion of the program, all Johnson Bronze employees will be welcomed to the evening's program of a floor show and dancing.

Catholic Auxiliary Will Meet Tonight

There will be a regular meeting of the New Castle Catholic War Veterans auxiliary, post 741, at 8 o'clock this evening in St. Vitus church hall, with president Jennie Domiano in charge.

Due to the cancellation of the last meeting, all members are urged to attend as many important matters will be discussed. Members are asked to bring in evening dresses as they will have to be sent next week to the orphanage in Scotland, Pa. Among the matters to be discussed will be the final arrangements for an event on Saturday, December 9, the Christmas party arrangements and Deshon hospital party which was cancelled.

Plans To Give Away Nobel Prize Money

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—(INS)—William Faulkner, who will today go to Stockholm to accept the $30,000 Nobel Prize for literature, intends to give the money away—for schoolbooks or the protection of game.

The author of "Sanctuary" and "Soldiers Pay," said: "Maybe it'll be the county schools—they need books. Or it might be for the protection of county game."

Faulkner, who will receive his prize Sunday, referred to Lafayette county, Miss., in whose town of Oxford he makes his home.

Around Hollywood

By JAMES PADGITT

(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 8.—Censor trouble is plaguing Hollywood again with bigwigs at two studios keeping their fingers crossed on scenes being retaken for forthcoming pictures.

There was a great clamor from the Breen office when the first print of "The Lemon Drop Kid" was viewed. The love scenes between Bob Hope and Marilyn Maxwell in Damon Runyon's famed story, the censors said, were not for family consumption.

It seemed that the getup Marilyn wore as the blonde charmer featured the last word in plunging necklines. The dress went back to the seamstresses for a little extra work. Marilyn's cleavage has now ben okayed by the Brene office and the love scenes are being shot all over again.

Too Much Kootch

At Universal they are running into difficulties with Rhonda Fleming's hootchy-kootchy dance for "Little Egypt". The script—and the censor's office—calls for the red-haired beauty to swing her hips from side to side as she goes through her paces in the dancing scenes for the opus of the Chicago Exposition of 1893.

Rhonda, however, keeps swinging her hips in a circular motion and the Breen office will not have it. Rhonda claims that her dance just works out that way and, for the life of her, she cannot get her hips into the side-to-side only business.

Help Declined

Miss Cargill can still swing and swap the "kootchy" despite her years, but she no longer does it professionally. She was anxious to teach Rhonda the delicate bit of business wherein Fahreda Mazhar (the first Little Egypt) balanced two glasses of champagne on her tummy and, by intricate muscular movement, made them clink together in time with the music without spilling the champagne.

Miss Fleming declined Miss Cargill's offer since the censors would not permit such goings on on the screen.

THIS AND THAT

Short takes: Ninety-one theaters have closed in southern California since the first of the year, 41 in Los Angeles alone . . The junkets to Korea to entertain troops planned by Edward G. Robinson and Danny Kaye have been cancelled by General MacArthur . . Director Arther Lubin is keeping his fingers crossed that Francis will not be called back into service before completion of "Francis Goes to the Races". Francis is an army mule . . . Veteran actress Ethel Barrymore still commutes to and from her studio in an automobile of 1952 vintage . . . Paramount has slated "Road To Paris" and "Road To Hollywood" for Bob Hope, Bing Crosby and Dorothy Lamour.

Divorcee's Death Is Being Probed

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Dec. 8.—(INS)—A 39-year-old divorcee who was to have been married December 16 was found dead Thursday in the Wilkes-Barre home of the man she was to wed.

City police said the circumstances warranted an investigation.

Mrs. Jessie E. Conahan, police said, who was to marry Casper Fisher, 49, was found at the bottom of a flight of steps while a considerable amount of blood was found on a living room sofa. The woman had a discolored eye and neck injuries, according to police.

Fisher told authorities the woman had been his housekeeper for about six months and that they had chosen a wedding ring yesterday. She obtained a divorce November 6.

Fisher was taken to police headquarters for questioning while the body was held for an autopsy by Coroner Lewis Reese.

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A bearded mountaineer gave two hunters from the city explicit directions for reaching the area they had circled on their map, and as an afterthough, said, "There's a still up thar, and long as you're passing by it, you might as well bring back a coupla jugs of moonshine with you."

They found the still on their way home, picked up two jugs apiece, and started ambling down the hill. When a bullet whizzed by their ears, however, they accelerated their pace to a wild gallop. The mountaineer saw them dash madly into his yard and said, "What ails ye, boys?"

"Federal agents must be raiding your still. They shot at us," gasped one of the hunters.

"Shucks," said the mountaineer, unperturbed. "I jist forgot to tell you one thing. That ain't my still.

McCLURE CLASS HAS FESTIVE DINNER

A Christmas party highlighted the meeting of the McClure Bible class of the First Presbyterian church on Thursday evening. The group gathered for a six o'clock dinner at New Wilmington, with candles and colorful Christmas ornaments decorating the tables.

Special guests were Dr. and Mrs. Robert F. Galbreath, Mr. and Mrs. George Ramey, and Mrs. Clara Crawford.

Officers for the new year were elected: president, Fred Ball; vice president, Mrs. Allen Miller; secretary, Mrs. Clarence Armstrong; treasurer, Arthur Clark.

Hosts and hostesses for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. W. Howard Humphrey, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Koch, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin B. Dinsmore, and Dr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Foster.

COLLEGE CLUB PLANS YULETIDE PARTY

College club members will enjoy their annual Christmas party when they assemble in the Jameson Memorial hospital nurses' home Tuesday evening, Dec. 12.

Always a most entertaining occasion, this year's party will afford a full evening's pleasure for all who attend. Miss Mildred Burleson will relate legends of Christmas, some of them well known and many rarely told.

The College club chorus, under the able direction of Mrs. W. J. Caldwell, will make its first appearance of the season.

Mrs. John Barnes is chairman of the hostess committee.

READING CIRCLE '06 MEETING POSTPONED

The Christmas meeting of the Reading Circle of '06 which was to have been held at the home of Mrs. Howard Gardner, East Boyles avenue, Thursday, Dec. 14, has been postponed indefinitely.

A. G. Club Gathers

Mrs. Joseph DeLillo of 508 Canyon street entertained members of the A. G. club in her home on Wednesday evening. Christmas funds were distributed to the members, and names were drawn for a gift exchange.

Mrs. Anthony Fazzone, who received the club token, was also presented with a birthday gift from the club. Mrs. Vincent Lamorella was a special guest of the evening.

At a later hour, a tempting lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Charles Micco. A Christmas party will be held at the home of Mrs. Anthony Fazzone, 808 Wilmington avenue, December 20.

Good Neighbors Meet

Cards were the pleasant diversion when members of the Good Neighbors club met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. H. V. Brown, West Washington street extension. Prizes were presented to Mrs. Mildred Woodard and Mrs. John Earl.

Mrs. Raymond Huling was presented with a birthday gift from her secret good neighbor. Dainty refreshments were later served by the hostess.

Complete plans for the next meeting will be announced later.

O.A.O. CLUB HAS YULETIDE MEETING

Mrs. Thomas Baskeyfield, Huron avenue, was a pleasing hostess to members of the O. A. O. club Thursday evening for their Christmas meeting.

Christmas packages were exchanged. Two tables of bridge were featured with high score favors going to Mrs. J. J. Kenehan, Mrs. Harold Pitzer and Mrs. J. Wilbur McKibben.

Later a delicious lunch was served, with Christmas appointments highlighting the table arrangements. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. E. J. Flansburg.

The next meeting will be held on Thursday, Jan. 4, at the home of Mrs. E. J. Flansburg, Rose avenue.

D.D.D. PLANS FOR TUREEN DINNER

Mrs. Sam Fray of the East Brook road entertained members of the D.D.D. club in her home Thursday evening.

Cards provided the evening's pastime, with high score prizes awarded to Mrs. James Ray, Mrs. Arthur Milliken and Mrs. William Patterson.

A dainty lunch was later served by the hostess, with the room attractive with Christmas decorations that had been made by Mr. Fray. The group will meet December 14 at the home of Mrs. James Thompson, Edison avenue.

A tureen dinner, with husbands as guests, will be held December 23 at the home of Mrs. Arthur Milliken, Winter avenue.

T. T. T. Group Meets

Mrs. William Madden, 407 Bartram avenue, was hostess to members of the T. T. T. group when they assembled in her home on Thursday evening. The meeting was in charge of Mrs. F. D. Marshall, with Mrs. Howard Gross leading in prayer. The members repeated memorized portions of scripture. The hostess was presented with a selection of knick-knacks for her home. Mrs. Ed Borger received a wedding anniversary gift from her secret sister.

Lunch was served by the hostess, aided by Mrs. F. D. Marshall.

LONDON BRIDGE CLUB TO HAVE YULE PARTY

Mrs. Thomas Grittie, East Washington street, will receive members of the London Bridge club at her home for the club Christmas party on January 3.

This was announced when members met at the home of Mrs. Charles Book, Scotland Lane. Cards were the entertaining pastime with Mrs. Emor Vaughn winning first place; Mrs. John Young, second and Mrs. Harold Dinsmore the galloper.

Names were drawn for secret sisters and the annual gift exchange.

HARBOR GARDEN CLUB TO MEET TUESDAY

Members of the Harbor Garden club will gather Tuesday, December 12 at the home of Mrs. Ed Chapman, Youngstown road, with a Christmas party to highlight the program. Gifts will be exchanged by the group.

Roll call will be answered with "Christmas Legends" or "Christmas Customs in Other Lands."

Peter Pan Girls

Miss Louise Costa entertained the Peter Pan Girls, Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Betty Graziani, 1061 Butler avenue.

A Christmas dinner was planned for December 21 at Hotel New Penn. Secret sisters will be revealed and an exchange will be held.

A dainty lunch was served by the hostess with Catherine LaRocco assisting. Appropriate holiday decorations were used.

January 4, is the meeting with Miss Vincie Chirumbolo, of 211 East Lutton street.

Cavalier Club

Mrs. Thomas Beatrice of Pennsylvania avenue was hostess to Cavalier club members, Thursday evening. Mrs. Beatrice had three special prizes awarded during the evening and these were won by Mrs. Arsen Aramonda, Mrs. Joseph Bosco and Mrs. Rose Parisi.

Card playing was the later pastime. Mrs. Frank DeMatteo later aided the hostess in serving lunch.

December 14, is the meeting with Mrs. A. Aramonda, Phillips street, when a Christmas party will be held.

The afternoon was devoted to fancy work and chat, with plans made for a Christmas party to be held December 19 at a local tearoom.

The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Joseph Perkins, 74 South Lee avenue, with the date announced later.

Section A Dines

Section A of the Y. L. B. class enjoyed a delicious turkey dinner Thursday evening in Third U. P. church. The dinner was served by the S. B. Copeland class at tables, decorated in the holiday theme. A gift exchange was a feature.

Miss Alma Lutz pleased with a group of readings. Mrs. John Kocher directed games and contests.

VICTORY CLUB HAS DINNER EVENT

Members of the 1940 Victory club gathered Wednesday evening at the Hotel Fountain Inn for their Christmas party. A full course turkey dinner was enjoyed by the group, with lovely gifts later exchanged.

A short business meeting was held, with five hundred as the later diversion. Successful in capturing high score awards were Mrs. Mary Cox, Mrs. Carrie Calvert, and Mrs. Albert Stritzinger.

Mrs. Carrie Calvert of rear 306 North Cedar street will entetain the club members on January 3.

ACE-HI CLUB PLANS YULETIDE PARTY

Ace-Hi club members will hold a Christmas party at the Elks home next Wednesday at a 1 o'clock luncheon. Gifts will be exchanged.

Plans were made at the meeting held Wednesday in the Elks home with three tables of cards featuring the diversion. High score winners were Mrs. Clyde Rohrer, Mrs. Ammon Casey and Mrs. Eva Woodring.

A.B.D. SOCIETY HAS HOLIDAY PARTY

Members of the A. B. D. society gathered Tuesday evening in the First Presbyterian church for a holiday party, an exchange of gifts being a feature.

Mrs. Ross Rosenberger presided when plans were made to cheer residents of the Almira home during the Christmas season.

Christmas music, under the direction of Mrs. William J. Caldwell and Mrs. C. D. Keagy, was enjoyed. Tasty refreshments were served from a table, decorated with a miniature merry-go-round, an antique. Mrs. K. C. Steele, Mrs. Paris Shoaff, Mrs. John A. Edgar, Mrs. Lake MacNab and Mrs. W. E. Langan composed the hostess committee.

MARJORIE DELANCY HOSTESS TO CLASS

Devotions were read and records of Dr. Bob Jones, Jr., were played. Janet Robb led the group in prayer.

The business meeting was in charge of the president, Esther DiPlacido. Following the meeting games were played, prizes being won by Joan Slater and Norma Jenkins. A stationery exchange was also enjoyed by the girls.

TIFERETH SISTERHOOD TO MEET TUESDAY

Members of Tifereth Israel Sisterhood are planning their regular monthly meeting and Chanukah party at the Tifereth Israel synagogue, Tuesday evening at 8:15 o'clock.

An exchange of gifts and a program will be held following the regular business meeting.

Senate Votes Extension Of Rent Control

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(INS)—The senate on Thursday approved, 55 to 28, two-month extension of federal rent controls affecting nearly four million dwellings in 1,700 communities.

The house is expected to vote a thre-month extension of the law later. House approval will send the legislation to a conference committee to iron out the differences in the two bills.

In the senate, banking committee chairman Maybank (D) S. C., declared that "in the present state of world conditions" it would be too risky to permit rent ceilings to die Dec. 31, when the present law expires.

Senate passage came despite considerable Republican opposition, led by Ohio Senators Taft and Bricker.

Taft conceded that the new congress may have to pass a new rent law if the mobilization program makes it necessary, but he declared the present law "has no anti-inflation value" and should be permitted to expire.

Maybank, on the other hand, insisted that the rent control machinery should be kept intact and asserted that extension would temporarily prevent "a large number of rent increases at the very time when it is most important that we not rock the economic boat."

Before taking its final vote, the senate defeated, 53 to 29, a proposed amendment by Sen. Flanders (R) Vt., which would have required a "general re-adjustment" of the present ceilings.

Flanders' proposal would have required the housing expediter to bring controlled rents into line with those charged on comparable uncontrolled units.

Senate Republicans To Have Meeting On 'Acheson Ouster'

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8—(INS)—The Senate Republican policy committee voted unanimously today to convene all Senate Republicans next week to consider the GOP demand that President Truman oust Secretary of State Acheson.

The policy group appointed a committee to redraft the resolution by Sen. Ives (R) N. Y., after some disagreement developed over its wording.

On the drafting committee are Ives, Senate GOP floor leader Wherry of Neb., conference chairman Millikin of Colo., and Sen. Smith of N. J.

As Ives wrote it, the resolution calls on President Truman to request the resignation of Acheson. The resolution does not go to the Senate floor, but would merely represent the views of Republican senators.

Chairman Taft (R) Ohio, in announcing the action of the policy committee, said the conference of all 43 Senate Republicans also will consider "all phases of the foreign and military situation," including the results of the Truman-Attlee talks. Taft said:

"We decided that the conference of Republican senators should be called next week, perhaps Tuesday, to consider all phases of the foreign and military situation which presents such a serious threat to the safety of the country.

"We decided the matter in the Ives resolution was of sufficient importance to be considered by the conference.

"The committee did not express an opinion (on the demand for Acheson's ouster) but I think individually each member agrees with him. But whether the resolution should be a party matter is something for the conference to decide."

Fellow Mechanic Saves Man's Life

DETROIT, Dec. 8.—(INS)—A 33-year-old air national guard mechanic is alive today only because a fellow mechanic kept him from being completely sucked into the air-intake scoop of an F-84 jet plane.

The suction was so intense that Lewis' gloves were turned inside out and pulled from his hands, the buttons and zipper on his clothes were ripped off and his pockets and their contents were yanked from his pants.

He was pulled from the ground and drawn into the narrow snout when he reached up to pull a colored streamer from the intake. A fellow mechanics at Wayne airport held his legs until the motor was shut off.

Capt. John E. Mead, adjutant of the 127th fighter wing, said Lewis was lucky his eyes weren't pulled from their sockets. As it was, he escaped with only bruises and lacerations.

Expect 2,000 Youngsters At J. B. Co. Party

Sons and daughters of Johnson Bronze employes are looking forward to their Christmas party Saturday morning in the Cathedral auditorium.

More than 2,000 youngsters are expected to attend the annual festivity co-sponsored by the Johnson Bronze company and Local 69, UAW-CIO.

Only childrn of Johnson Bronze employes are invited to attend. Admission to the auditorium will be by ticket only.

The three-hour program gets underway at nine o'clock. It includes stage entertainment, movies, a special Christmas treat, and a rare pre-Christams appearance of Santa Claus himself.

Harold McCarty will be master of ceremonies for the program. Paul Cuba and Helmuth Kray are co-chairmen of the event.

Korea Casualties 32,442 At Start Of Present Month

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(INS)—The Defense Department announced Thursday that cerified American casualties in Korea on Dec. 1 totalled 32,442, an increase of 1,414 over the previous week.

The new list does not include any of the casualties in the new Chinese Communist offensive launched 10 days ago. The latter are believed unofficially to be more than 20,000, which would bring total U. S. casualties in Korea to more than 50,000.

The verified casualties included 5,038 men killed in action; 22,337 wounded, of whom 573 have died; and 5,067 listed as missing in action, of whom 621 have been rescued.

By services, the army on Dec. 1 had suffered 27,940 verified casualties, the Marine Corps, 3,907, the navy, 335 and the air force, 260.

A. J. GOOCH CLASS WITH MRS. MUNTEAN

A. J. Gooch class of the Hoover Heights Christian Missionary Alliance church met Thursday evening with Mrs. Eli Mantean, Newell avenue. Mrs. Carl Lundeen was co-hostess.

Mrs. James Martin read "The Christmas Story" and Mrs. Robert Abernathy read "No Room in the Inn." The president Mrs. Arthur Hennon, gave a talk on "Peace and Good Will." Mrs. Gooch and Mrs. F. C. Johannides led in prayer. The business session took place. Gifts were exchanged and a delicious lunch was served by the hostess, with holiday appointments being carried out in the menu.

Mission Auxiliary

Ladies auxiliary of the City Rescue Mission assembled Tuesday at the mission, with the president, Mrs. Kenneth Lutz, in charge. Group singing opened the meeting, with Mrs. Paul Fombelle conducting a period of devotions, using the Christmas theme. The stories from John and Luke were read. Mrs. Clare Lutz favored with a solo, "O Holy Night". Mrs. Fombelle gave the poem "Christ At Christmas" and Mrs. Elizabeth Jones presented the reading, "The Cross He Bore".

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Lutz, Mrs. Fombelle and Mrs. Grace Boggs.

The next meeting is on January 3 at the mission.

S. and S. Club

Wednesday evening members of the S. and S. club were entertained at the home of Miss Jilda DePolis of 736 Ridge street.

Plans were completed for the annual Christmas party scheduled to be held in the form of a dinner at a local dining room Wednesday evening, Dec. 13.

The remainder of the evening was spent in an informal manner, and the club token was won by Nancy Jannetti.

At a late hour the hostess served a dainty lunch, aided by her mother, Mrs. Lorenze DePolis.

The next regular meeting will be Wednesday, Dec. 27, at the home of Miss Emma Jannetti, 707 East Long avenue.

Silver Top Club

Following the short business meeting, chatting was the diversion of the event. The club token was given to Mrs. Donna Vitale. Later, a lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Rose DeRobertis.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Mary Augustine, West Washington street extension, December 20.

KANDELITE CLUB PLANS YULE PARTY

Plans for a Christmas party to be held Wednesday, Dec. 20, were made by members of the Kandelite club, when they were received for a pleasant evening Thursday at the home of Mrs. Ralph Turco, East Washington street.

Mrs. Joseph Di Lorenzo won the door prize. Mrs. Lodovic Marino was a special guest and aided the hostess inserving the tasty lunch.

T. S. B. Club Gathers

Mrs. Audra Steele of West Washington street extension welcomed members of the T. S. B. club into her home on Thursday evening.

Canasta prizes went to Mrs. Margaret Heim and Mrs. Dorothy Hoagland, while Mrs. Gladys Bevan and Mrs. Mary Rice won the five hundred prizes.

Mrs. Virginia Cochran assisted the hostess in serving a dainty lunch. The next meeting will be a Christmas dinner on December 19 at a local dining room, with a gift exchange by the members.

Approximately 430 Arrested As 'Drunks'

Approximately 430 persons were arrested by city police on the plain charge of having imbibed too freely of intoxicating bowls and landed in jail here this year up to December 1. This is less than two per 24 hours.

WOMEN AIR RAID WARDENS

PETERS TOWNSHIP, Pa., Dec. 8.—(INS)—Peters township will have all women air raid wardens.

Gerald C. Garner, co-ordinator of civil defense for the Washington county community, explained: "Men are hard to find. I always can get in touch with the women at home."

Bessemer Legion Auxiliary To Meet

The Earl J. Watt unit 638, American Legion auxiliary of Bessemer and surrounding territory will hold their annual Christmas party in the basement of the Presbyterian church Monday, Dec. 11, at 6:30 o'clock.

All families of both the auxiliary and the post are invited to the the event, which is in the form of a tureen dinner. Santa will be there with a gift for each child and an entertaining program has been planned.

If you would like to be a Santa yourself, bring a child's toy for a veteran's orphan at Scotland school and a deck of cards or a pair of white socks for a boy in the Deshon Veterans' hospital.

TO HONOR DUFF

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 8.—(INS)—Gov. James H. Duff tonight will be presented the layman's honor award by the Pennsylvania Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

State Secretary of Welfare William C. Brown will be the featured speaker at the banquet in Pittsburgh. The banquet is part of the 29th annual convention of the association.

Today's Fashion Flash

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—(INS)—The smart appearance of uppity-priced corde handbags is being purloined—by plastic.

New York manufacturers today introduced corded vinylite bags that are delightfully dead ringers for corde. Only these are grease, grime and alcohol resistant, and prices at $2.95.

Fashion experts agreed that the vinylite copy of corde is the biggest fashion step plastic has trod. Compared with the feeble first attempts of plastic to imitate patent leather, it's a fine fashion-fake.

Not only will designers offer all-corde substitutes, but they'll also reproduce effects of corde applique on vinylite "calf".

Policeman Del Weiss Shows Improvement

City Policeman Del Weiss who was injured when struck by an auto at Grant and Sampson street, a month ago tomorrow, is showing improvement. He sustained a broken vertebrae and must wear a cast. However, he is able to take short walks.

Over Ten Thousand Names On Docket

Ten thousand, three hundred and thirteen names were inscribed on the city police docket up to December 1, this year. Included in the number were approximately 6,000 who violated the parking meters.

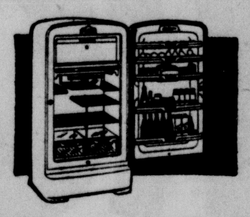

Issue 1752 Permits For Building Here

City Bureau of building permits issued up to December 1, numbered 1,753. They were issued for all types of construction.

Alger Hiss Verdict Justified Says Court Of Appeals

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—(INS)—The U. S. Court of Appeals on Thursday upheld unanimously the perjury conviction and five-year prison sentence of former State department aide Alger Hiss.

Hiss promptly issued a statement through his attorney stating:

"I reaffirm my innocence and have instructed my counsel to take all further necessary steps to establish it."

It is expected the one-time adviser to President Roosevelt at Yalta will carry his appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court—now his last chance to avoid going to prison. He currently is at liberty under $10,000 bail.

The Circuit Court in its opinion said it could find no basis for Hiss's chief reason for appeal, that trial judge Henry W. Goddards' charge to the jury was improper.

Verdict Justified

Not only did it find, said the Appeals Court, that no judicial error was committed, but it likewise felt that testimony and evidence produced at the Hiss trial apparently was of such "breadth and scope" as to justify the guilty verdict.

The testimony of self-confessed former Soviet spy courier Whittaker Chambers, chief accuser of Hiss, was particularly mentioned by the Court of Appeals in this connection.

Hiss, who helped to organize the United Nations at San Francisco, was convicted in January on two counts of perjury and sentenced to five years in prison by Judge Goddard.

The lanky 45-year-old Hiss was found guilty of lying when he denied slipping government secrets to Chambers, and again when he denied seeing Chambers after January 1, 1937.

The Court of Appeals opinion, written by Judge Harrie B. Chase and concurred in by Judges A. N. Hand and Thomas W. Swan, singled out U. S. Attorney Irving Saypol and Special Assistant Prosecutor Thomas Murphy, now New York police commissioner, for praise for their conduct of the Hiss prosecution.

Charge Was Clear

The opinion declared:

"There was nothing in the conduct of the prosecutors which can justify reversal."

In regard to the charge of Judge Goddard to the jury, the Court of Appeals held:

"Judge Goddard's charge was clear and comprehensive and there was no error."

Referring to testimony of Chambers, former Time and Life magazine editor, the 25-page opinion said:

"Indeed, it is perfectly plain that his testimony, believed as it evidently was by the jury, is of such breadth and scope that if it was adequately substantiated by other evidence, as the law required, there was enough to support the verdict."

The opinion said that the battered Woodstock typewriter, once owned by Hiss and on which the government charged the stolen secret State department documents were typed, substantiated the testimony of Chambers.

Produced Typewriter

The government produced the typewriter in evidence at the trial. Hiss admitted owning the machine, but he and his wife, Priscilla, vigorously denied using it to copy the filched papers.

As to a defense charge that the testimony of Mrs. Hede Massing, former wife of Gerhardt Eisler, who fled the U. S. and became an Esat Berlin communist official, was received out of order because she was called as government rebuttal witness, the Appeals Court said:

"This was no error. There are matters so clearly within the discretion of the judge, who so clearly exercised it well, that we think no more need be said."

The opinion concluded:

"The effort to have the judgment arrested and the indictment dismissed was induced by a clearly untenable theory that the statute of limitations had barred the prosecution of the offense charged in the indictment."

Chester P. Lane, Hiss's attorney of record, refused to comment but said he would confer with Hiss privately later.

National Income Increase Forecast

SEATTLE, Dec. 8.—(INS)—A federal reserve board governor predicted today that national income, already at record heights, may rise as much as 25 billion dollars next year as a result of the defense program.

Oliver S. Powell of the reserve board also told the Pacific Northwest banking conference that employment in non-essential civilian production may drop one million in the new year.

But the decline in employment, Powell said, will be made up by stepped-up defense output and estimates on national income—now running at a 240 billion dollar annual rate—may have to be revised upwards.

AIEE To Meet At Sharon On Monday

Folks Of Fame

This Swedish scientist, inventor, philosopher and theologian, Emmanuel Swedenburg was born at Stockholm on January 29, 1688. He studied natural philosophy while on a travel trip to England, Holland, France and Germany. Returning home he devoted himself to natural science and engineering, and published many scientific periodicals. In 1716 he was made assessor extraordinary on the Swedish board of mines. He invented machines for the transport of boats overland, for which he was given a patent of nobility. He was many years ahead of his time in his scientific theories of geology, astronomy, and physiology. After 1734, he applied himself to discovering the nature of soul and spirit. He claimed to see extraordinary visions and to hear mysterious conversations, to have seen heaven and hell and to have conversed with angels and spirits. In 1747 he resigned his government post and devoted himself to religion. The religious society named for him and promulgating his doctrines is now widely spread. He died in London, England March 29, 1772.

A favorite star of motion pictures not so long ago, Dorothy Mackail was born in Hull, England, March 4, 1905, and received her dramatic training at London's dramatic school. She appeared in the Hippodrome chorus in London in "Joybelle," later heading the famous "Chicken" number in that creation. "The Face at the Window," her first film, was also made in London. Later she came to New York and joined the "Ziegfeld Follies." She played leads with John Barrymore in "The Lotus Eater," and "Bits of Life." She played opposite Richard Barthelmess and Milton Sills, and in the "Torchy" comedies. "Subway Sadie," "Just Another Blonde," "The Crystal Cup," "Lady Be Good," "The Barker," "The Whip," "Great Divide," "The Office Wife," "Man Trouble," etc., were just a few of the pictures in which she appeared. The later ones were "Curtain at Eight," "Cheaters" and "Bulldog Drummond at Bay."

THE OLD ONES ARE BEST

Sleep and rest are old timers but still going strong. Hard work is fine, everybody should be busy doing something worth while.

In order to do good work, there must be enough rest and sleep. Perhaps eight hours of sleep is about right for most people. Some seem to need a little more and some get along with less.

Butch would rather watch a rasslin match than go to bed but Mom knows best. She makes Dad and him turn off the radio and hit the hay.

JUDGE IS APPOINTED

HARRISBURG, Dec. 8.—(INS)—Robert M. Morris, a Punxsutawney attorney and former district attorney, was elevated today to the Jefferson county Common Pleas Court by Gov. James H. Duff.

He succeeds the late Judge Jesse C. Long.

The 49-year-old Morris was graduated from Dickinson Law school in 1927 and served two terms as district attorney.

MAYOR IS INJURED

McKEESPORT, Pa., Dec. 8.—(INS)—Mayor Charles A. Kinkaid of McKeesport had two bruised legs today as a result of a traffic accident Wednesday night.

He was banged about the legs when the automobile behind his was ramn.ed by a truck. Mayor Kinkaid's auto in turn rammed the car in front of his.

Critic Writes Successful Play

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—(INS)—Wolcott Gibbs never had it so good as before he wrote a Broadway hit, "Season In The Sun," a Chef D'Oeuvre to which it is almost as difficult to get tickets as "South Pacific."

Until ten weeks ago, he was the witty and acidulous but carefree dramatic critic for the New Yorker magazine whose only worry was an occasional lynching party emanating from the theatrical district.

Now the money is rolling in in great big breakers, the taxes are mounting higher and higher, old school chums he hasn't heard from in thirty years demand tickets, he's afraid to answer the telephone and can't bear not to, and he is beginning to approach opening nights with something akin to Christian kindness!

"Yes, it's true I had to go to Hot Springs shortly after the show opened," Mr. Gibbs said yesterday in the living room of his New York apartment. "But I didn't go because I was in the midst of a physical or nervous breakdown.

Left To Get Relief

"I left town to get out of the ticket business. The phone never quit ringing after the show opened. People I hadn't heard from in thirty years called. It was enough to drive a man mad.

"And they all said the same thing, 'You won't remember me, but we went to school together.'

"And then they all said something else, 'strangely enough, I am only going to be in town three days, and since I last saw you, I have gotten a little deaf, so if you can get me seats in the second row—'"

Mr. Hanna now deals with the old chums seeking tickets, and he has also jimmied the Gibbs telephones until they no longer ring. They now buzz, which Mr. Gibbs does not find a great improvement. For whether the ring or buzz, Mr. Gibbs shares with the rest of humanity the compulsion to answer the phone.

"Medal Of Honor"

In some parts of Broadway, there is a move on foot to obtain the medal of honor for Mr. Gibbs as a theatrical critic brave above and beyond the call of duty for defying the die-hard superstitution that no critic can write a play worth an amateur production by the little theatre group of Three Forks, Mont.

He is the first critic in years not only to write a play but achieve a run-away comedy hit. "Season In The Sun" is not only rolling the cash customers in the aisles, but his conferes, the New York critics, thought it was slightly wonderful, and rightly, too.

All of this would make Mr. Gibbs relatively pleased and happy if it were not for the money, the taxes, the old friends and the people who want him to appear on radio and TV programs.

"I am not vocal enough for the one or pretty enough for the other," he said.

Had No Yen To Quit

Unlike the hero of his comedy, Mr. Gibbs has never had any yen to quit the "New Yorker," write serious books and reform the world.

"I always knew I damn well couldn't," he admitted. There is something very soothing about a weekly pay check, and Mr. Gibbs intends to cleave to the "New Yorker" for richer, for poorer.

As a man with a foot in both worlds, both fore and aft the footlights, he thinks maybe his experience as a playwright has gentled him a bit toward other plays and playwrights, although not noticeably.

He has discovered, for example, that lines the author feels will slay the customers, often die a lonely death, while other lines—tossed in merely to help the action or cover movement—will kill 'em.

Mr. Gibbs already is working "sporadically" on another play. And if you want to know just how sophisticated the "New Yorker" set is—well—Mr. G. is keeping a scrapbook of his press notices. Or how square can you get?

Key Soviet Figure Reported To Have Fled From Russia

LONDON, Dec. 8.—(INS)—A man described as a key figure among the Soviet industrial and diplomatic heirarchy was reported by the London Daily Express today to have fled Russia and taken refuge in Sweden.

A dispatch from Stockholm said that Markin, the most important figure to quit Russia since the war, now is living in an unidentified Swedish village where guards have been posted to prevent his abduction.

(In Washington it was said that Markin was a regional director of the Soviiet bureau of manpower mobilization, supply allocation and mobilization planning. The bureau corresponds roughly to the American National Security Resources Board.

A very quiet wedding ceremony was performed in the home of Justice of the Peace Pauline V. Isaac on Tuesday evening, December 5, at 8 o'clock, when Virginia Capitola of New Castle became the bride of William W. Parrent of New Castle. The bride wore a leaf green dress with matching accessories and a corsage of roses. The marriage was performed in the presence of their immediate families.

Salary Raises For Employes

Officials Evaluating Office Positions

Increases in salaries seems to be a certainty for court house employes for 1951.

In building the budget the county commissioners are taking into consideration the fact that salaries should be increased and with the heads of the various departments are studying the question now.

There will be no blanket or across the board increase, the commissioners preferring to evaluate the various positions and make increases accordingly.

ELECTION EXPENSES

Two more statements of expenses incurred in the general election of November 7 were filed before noon Friday. Daniel W. Skelly, treasurer of the CIO-Political Action Committee filed a report showing contributions of $2240.81. Expenditures are shown to be $1955. Frank M. Clark, Democratic candidate for the General Assembly from the second district filed a statement showing he had spent less than $150.

Thursday was the last day to file such statements of expenditures. As this was written neither the Republican nor Democratic parties had filed and several candidates had not filed. These may have been filed before four thirty Thursday afternoon.

COME TO OUR WELCOME PARTY

More people drive . . . more people want . . . Chevrolet than any other make. So it's traditional that when a new Chevrolet comes out, our premier showing of the new models is a community event. That's as it should be. We like to feel that you take as great an interest in Chevrolet—the leader—as we take in our home town, which as far as we are concerned, is the leader among all the communities of America.

Introducing a new model of the car that has been the leader for 20 years is a great experience for us that never loses its thrill. Hundreds of folks feel the same way about it. We hope you will join them in our showroom Saturday.

Ward School Stamp Contest

Class 2-109 Now Leading Purchases

The class who has purchased the most stamps during that time is 2-109, Mrs. Ethel Patterson, teacher, with a total of $190.60; and in second place by a narrow margin is class 5-208, Miss Ethel Pitzer, teacher, with $190.40. In third place is 1-108 class, Miss Mary Black, teacher, having a total of $179.95.

Class 5-208 has been leading all year until being outdistanced this week by 2-109.

There is now a banner to be won each week by the class with the highest percentage of pupils purchasing stamps during that week. 9-209 won the banner this week, Miss Consuelo Shorts, teacher. They had 80 per cent of their pupils buying stamps.

Suffers Broken Leg From Fall

George Wilkinson, aged 54 years, of 508 W. Clayton street, was admitted to the Jameson Memorial hospital at 11:30 p.m., Thursday, for treatment of a compound fracture of the left leg, which he received in a fall on the icy pavement.

Mr. Wilkinson was walking along the street, two blocks from his home, when he slipped and fell heavily to the sidewalk.

Presbyterian Team To Practice Tonight

This evening at Mahoning School, the basketball team of Mahoningtown Presbyterian church will have a practice period in the gymnasium.

There was a large attendance at the Christian Endeavor meeting of the church on Sunday evening. William Bollinger, adult sponsor, was leader at the meeting, and presented a program based on knowledge of the Bible.

Meeting was opened with a song period led by Don Weisbaker. Miss Edna Mae Turk read portion of Scripture, followed by a season of prayer.

At the business session the coming Christmas party was discussed. A turkey dinner has been planned and gifts will be exchanged. The variety show, postponed due to the recent emergency, will be given at a later date, to be announced.

1937 Club Gathers, Officers Elected

In St. Margaret's hall, North Liberty street, members of 1937 Club assembled on Wednesday evening, with Mrs. Ruth Prescaro in charge.

At the annual business session, the following officers were elected for the year 1951: president, Mrs. Ruth Prescaro; vice-president, Mrs. Madeline Pecorraro; financial secretary, Mrs. Viola Cubellis; treasurer, Mrs. Elizabeth DeVivo; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Margaret Masters; trustees, Mrs. Mary Castoldi and Mrs. Anna Domenick; hall guard, Mrs. Antonette Lombardo; banner carriers, Mrs. Nick Castoldi and Mrs. Esther Perod.

Plans were made for the Christmas party, with Mrs. Frances Martone as chairlady, to be held Monday, December 18, in the hall. There will be exchange of gifts.

Refreshments were served by the social committee. Next meeting of the group Wednesday evening, January 3, when there will be an exchange of gifts.

Pine Tree Patrol Member Passes Test

During the business period, Eddie Parady passed the first class test. A dainty lunch was served by Mrs. O. F. Shaffer.

Next meeting of the patrol will be Thursday, December 14, at same location.

Rev. W. F. Byers At Ward Church

Announcement is made that Rev. W. F. Byers, pastor of the Enon Valley Presbyterian church, will speak Sunday at 11 a.m. at the Mahoningtown Presbyterian church. Rev. Byers will exchange pulpits with Dr. J. W. Creighton ,who will conduct the annual thank-offering service at the Enon church.

Dr. Creighton who has spent some years in China, will no doubt tell of some of his experiences there in view of the present world situation and the crisis that exists in that country now.

Bridge Club Plans Christmas Party

Games of contest were the pastime of the afternoon. The main prize was captured by Mrs. Ada Keeling, and the gallopher by Mrs. Helen Gordon.

Next meeting will take the form of a Christmas party on Thursday, December 14, at the Castleton hotel. Secret sisters will be revealed; there will be an exchange of gifts.

Hospital Auxiliary Has Enjoyable Christmas Party

A large group of members was present to enjoy this yuletide event and it proved to be one long to be remembered. The nurses' classroom, where all auxiliary meetings are held, was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

The party got underway at 1:30 with a delicious luncheon meeting being served buffet style. Mrs. Carl Sewald and her committee, including Mrs. Ann McCann, Mrs. Edwin Willmarth, Mrs. Mildred Neilson, Mrs. Helen McCann, Mrs. Irene Bingham and Mrs. John Meehan, were hostesses for the luncheon.

The president, Mrs. William Strawbridge, welcomed the members and extended holiday greetings. She then called on Mrs. John Meehan, chairman of the program committee, who introduced Mrs. Chester Dean, who in an inspiring and impressive manner gave a review of "Following His Star". This beautiful religious book was penned by Florence Barkley. Miss Julia Owoc, a nurse and talented pianist, delighted the group with several lovely piano renditions of Christmas carols.

At the close of the program the ladies gathered around the Christmas tree to enjoy their gift exchange, Mrs. Jessie Stenger acting in the role of Santa Claus.

Mrs. J. J. McCarthy, who is chairman of the sewing group, had a lovely display of handwork which was on sale. She was assisted by Mrs. Russell Ficht, Miss Irene Mitchell and Mrs. Regina Guinagh.

Court Ruling Raises Another Tax Problem

By AL SPIVAK
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

HARRISBURG, Dec. 8. — State revenue officials are wondering how much of the $40,000,000 a year Pennsylvanians pay in cigarette taxes will be claimed as deductions from federal income levies.

The U. S. supreme court has ruled that smokers may deduct from federal income taxes the amount of taxes paid for cigarets in requiring a stamp on each pack showing the amount of the levy.

The commonwealth will not lose any money through the ruling but since Pennsylvania's four-cent tax is noted on a state stamp the question now is:

Up to November 30 of this year, $38,71,554 had been received.

One department spokesman expressed doubt that smokers will take much advantage of the deduction—or that they will have reason to.

"The bulk of taxpayers are in the low-income classification," he said. "It's unlikely that they will want to itemize deductions like cigarette taxes when they can accept a standard 10 per cent deduction and avoid paper work."

The supreme court decision was prompted by the appeal of an Oklahoman who said he burned up 15 packs a week. In Pennsylvania this would have cost him $31.20 in taxes. He claimed a $39 deduction for the Oklahoma levy.

Police Receipts Total $19,623.88

Police receipts from mayor's court this year, up to December 1, total $19,623.88. This amount includes, fines, and bail posted, but claimed when defendants did not appear for trial. The total also includes fines for parking violations. The money is sent to general revenue, and used to defray general expenses of the city.

Release November Employment Figures For Lawrence County

Francis Maffei, manager of the Lawrence county office of Pennsylvania State Employment Service has announced that continued reduction in the number of persons seeking work, which started last September, has prevailed for November.

In October, 1225 were listed by the state employment office as seeking work, and for November, 1187. Mr. Maffei has indicated that the reason for this is that those in the county laid off temporarily are now working.

There were 26 placed in clerical and sales, 73 in service, 19 in skilled positions, 23 in semi-skilled ones, 125 in unskilled ones and three on the farm.

A new system now working makes it mandatory for a person unemployed and seeking work to report to the local office every 30 days in order to keep his registration active.

Police Activities Slow Last Night

Police activities were slow last night. No cars were reported stolen. There were no burglaries. Only two persons were arrested for intoxication, both of whom were discharged by Mayor John F. Haven in police court this morning.

McBride Auxiliary Meets Thursday

Mrs. Helen Gordon, president, conducted the business session, at which time contributions for the Christmas parties were sent to the National Home, at Eaton Rapids, Mich., and Scotland School.

The Auxiliary made plans to hold their annual Christmas party on Thursday, Dec. 21, at the Post home, a tureen dinner at 6 o'clock to be the initial event. The Junior Auxiliary will be special guests for the occasion.

It was also announced that the post and auxiliary will entertain jointly the Tri-County Council on Thursday, Dec. 14, at the Post home.

Mrs. Gordon gave a reading commemorating Pearl Harbor Day. During the evening the auxiliary packed more boxes to be sent overseas.

Shenango Seniors Will Stage Play

The senior class play, "And Never Been Kissed", has been rescheduled for Thursday, December 14, at 8 o'clock in the Shenango high school auditorium.

This play, based on the best-selling novel "Sweet Sixteen and Never Been Kissed", is a teen-age comedy of bobby-soxers in some nostalgic scenes. Flory Patterson is almost sweet 16 and never been kissed. From the Month of Charlie (act 1) to the Month of Phillip (act 3) she devotes every waking moment to attracting the opposite sex. She attempts many hilarious schemes to make herself "passable" until that miraculous 16th birthday when overnight she will suddenly become gorgeous and beautiful.

The postponement of this production was a result of the recent snowstorm when it was impossible to hold practice sessions as previously planned. But the cast will be ready to present a clever and sprightly performance on Thursday, December 14.

Probe Mystery Of Prisoners Of War In Russia

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Dec. 8—(INS)—The United Nations began formal consideration Thursday of the "difficult and disturbing" problem of what has happened to more than 1,000,000 German, Japanese and Italian prisoners of war allegedly still held behind Russia's iron curtain.

He said Soviet Russia's failure to return these prisoners to their homes so that they can live in peace is a breach of agreements which Russia entered into at Potsdam in July, 1945, and at Moscow in September, 1947.

He declared the matter is of great concern to the United States, Great Britain, and France, parties to the agreements.

Back of the movement to effect the repatriation of these prisoners is the American Federation of Labor.

According to the AFL it is the duty of democratic world opinion and free world labor "to see to it that the Soviet dictators are forced to recognize that the free world will no longer take a lie for an answer."

Christ Lutherans Plan For Program

Plans are being made for a holiday program at Christ Lutheran church which will be given Sunday evening, December 17, at 7:30 o'clock.

Rose Avenue P.T.A. Hears Discussion By Dr. McClymonds

Members of the Rose Avenue Parent-Teachers association had Dr. Joseph McClymonds, supervisor of the fifth and sixth grade training teachers at Slippery Rock college, as guest speaker when they met Tuesday evening at Rose avenue school.

Mrs. Thomas Booher, president, opened the meeting with the group singing "America". Mrs. William McKee, secretary, read the minutes and roll call was taken, with Miss Atwell and Miss Armstrong winning the award for having the highest percentage of parents present. Mrs. Roy Mumford reported 371 members were enrolled in the PTA.

The trophy won by the PTA of New Castle for their float in the Armistice Day parade, was displayed for the group. City council delegates were appointed, namely, Mrs. Roy Mumford and Mrs. Ed Prosser. It was reported that Miss Lucille Lutton, teacher, was ill.

Harry Davis was appointed as legislative chairman, and sheets were given to the members so they can vote whether they are for or against the legislative program. Miss Gallagher and Mrs. McKee gave reports of the state convention in Pittsburgh.

Arrangements were discussed for the Christmas party to be given for the children. There is to be a tree, treats, Santa and all the trimmings. First and second vice presidents, Mrs. Al Jones and Miss Laura Blucher, will be in charge, with parents to assist.

Mrs. Samuel Rashid was in charge of the evening's program. The Rose avenue chorus sang "Blue Sky" and "Kentucky Babe". Singers were Miss A. Tillia, Mrs. Thomas Booher, Miss Betty Hovis, Mrs. William McKee, Mrs. Roy Mumford, Mrs. Samuel Rashid, Miss Ellen Gallagher and Mrs. Harry Davis at the piano.

Help Children

Dr. McClymonds had as his subject "What our schools should do to help children and what we as parents and teachers should do". He stated that a child should be taught to think and make decisions for himself. Teach the child to adapt himself to changes in these rapidly changing times, and to assume responsibility and learn spiritual values.

Continuing, Dr. McClymonds said "departmentalism in teaching is on the way out and the trend is toward self-contained classes which has proved to be the superior method. A good definition of mental hygiene is . . . as you ramble through life, whatever your goal, keep your eye on the doughnut and not on the hole."

An entertaining social period was enjoyed, with the table attractively decorated with a Christmas centerpiece. Candles were enhanced with holly leaves. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Prosser of the standing committee were in charge, with hostesses being Mrs. Yoho, Mrs. Seamans, Mrs. Cherie, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Dean, Mrs. Pasqualino, Mrs. Booher and Mrs. McKee.

Bull baiting as a sport once was popular in England, but was barred in 1835.

Will Sentence Gold Saturday

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 8—(INS)—Harry Gold, self-confessed wartime courier for a Russian spy ring, will learn his fate on Saturday for the crime of passing precious American atomic secrets to the Soviet Union.

U. S. District Judge James P. McGranery was to have imposed sentence today on gold but delayed such action after an all-day session of testimony in the case.

But U. S. Attorney Gerald Gleeson recommended that Gold be sent to prison for 25 years.

Gleesontold Judge McGranery that this recommendation had been given to him by U. S. Attorney General Howard McGrath.

Dr. Creighton To Speak At Enon Church

Annual thankoffering service of the Enon Valley Presbyterian church will take place Sunday at 11 a. m. in the church, the pastor, Rev. W. F. Byers, has announced.

The special speaker for the occasion will be Dr. J. W. Creighton, professor of history at Westminster college and moderator of the Mahoningtown Presbyterian church. Dr. Creighton will speak on the subject "The Ever Burning Light". The speaker spent a number of years in China and is prepared to speak on the present situation in China.

TO RECEIVE BIDS

HARRISBURG, Dec. 8—(INS)—The State Forestes and Waters Department will receive bids January 3 on 3,500,000 tons of anthracite culm dredged from the Schuylkill River north of Reading.

More than 50 per cent of the culm can be used commercially, according to Deputy Secretary E. S. McCawley.

High bidders will have to remove the culm from impounding basins and process, according to the department.

Jamboree Nets Big Toy Supply For Optimists

It is estimated by chairmen of the Optimist club toy drive that over 400 phone calls were made to donate toys and money during the Toy Jamboree held on WKST Thursday evening.

A total of $85 in cash and a great supply of toys were donated by the citizens of the community to be distributed by the Optimist club to the needy children at Christmas time.

District radio and entertainment artists along with the radio station, donated their services for the evening and played requests made by the people when they called to make donations.

Five phones—three lines at the Johnson Bronze company and two at the radio station—were kept busy all during the jamboree, which lasted from nine o'clock until 12:30.

Toys received by the club will be collected, fixed and painted if necessary, and then be distributed by club members. This toy drive is part of the Optimist club's year round activities for the boys of our community.

Toys may still be donated by calling 7307-M.

Awaiting Trial On Fourteen Burglary Charges In State

GREENSBURG, Pa., Dec. 8. — (INS) — A New Kensington, Pa., parolee was in the Westmoreland county jail today awaiting trial on 14 burglary charges after a "road show" tour of hearings in four counties.

State Police Sgt. Paul Rittleman said the suspect also has admitted breaking into the post office at New Florence and stealing $1,750 in U. S. Savings bonds.

Johnson was paroled from Allegheny county workhouse last April and was arrested in connection with the burglaries in November. He broke out of the Edbensburg jail on Thanksgiving day, but was captured a week later in Youngstown, O.

Willis Reams, a New Kensington auto repair shop operator, has been charged with receiving stolen goods from Johnson.

Another New Kensington man, Fred Harvey is charged with renting his automobile to Johnson with the knowledge that it was to be used in the burglaries.

Youth Burned By Cigaret Lighter

David Schuller, aged 7 years, of 26 North Lee avenue, was treated at the Jameson Memorial hospital at 6:05 p.m. Thursday for first degree burns of the neck, chest and fingers of both hands.

The boy was playing with a cigarette lighter when the fluid exploded, burning him.

Two New Wilmington Young Men Are Hurt

They were brought to the Jameson Memorial hospital at 3:20 a.m. Admitted for treatment was Don Kingery, aged 24 years, who suffered a cerebral concussion, laceration of the left ear and contusion of the left shoulder.

William Pitzer, aged 22 years, was treated for contusions of both wrists and was able to leave the hospital after receiving treatment.

Mrs. Edwina Brooks To Speak Tonight

Mrs. Edwina Brooks of DuBois, who has been conducting a successful series of meetings at the Sampson Street Alliance church this week, will continue her series this evening at 7:30 o'clock. She will give her personal testimony of divine healing.

The services will continue Saturday night and come to a close Sunday. Special music will be presented at each service.

C. D. Of A. Bowlers Will Have Party

Tuesday evening, December 12, the C. D. of A. bowling team will have their Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Anthony Moses, 831 Franklin avenue.

An exchange will be held and card playing will be the pastime. Refreshments will be served. Dancing will be featured later with the hostess' daughter, Shirley offering piano selections.

December 19, is the next bowling session.

Individual Initiative Is Discussed By Babson

By ROGER W. BABSON
(Copyright—1950—Publishers Financial Bureau, Inc.)

BABSON PARK, Mass., Dec. 8.—Three stories from different sources and from different parts of the world suggest what happens to initiative in the "welfare state".

Fair Deal Initiative

A friend of one of my associates was travelling in Europe recently. He found himself in a railroad station in the Russian zone of Austria with his wife critically ill. He immediately requested the station master to summon a doctor. The station master did so but in a few minutes returned to say excitedly, "The doctor says he won't come unless he's paid." The friend replied, "Of course I'll pay, but why do you ask?"

Roger W Babson

The doctor when he arrived pointed out that they had a system of socialized medicine, that he had already seen more than his quota of patients for the day, and that more calls meant no more for him than additional marks in the book. He, therefore, would make no more calls unless he was paid in advance. Here is regimentation in medicine. Even the professional man, long an example of initiative and resourcefulness, is deprived of his heritage.

Two More Examples

We don't have to go to Russian satellites or to Britain to find examples of loss of initiative. Recently, the director of personnel of one of the largest automobile manufacturing concerns visited Babson Institute. We were discussing pros and cons of labor unions. This particular individual was an enlightened person and pointed to many of the good things that the labor unions have done for both the worker and the automotive industry. But on one point he really exploded. Said he, "I never forgive any union for killing the initiative of the man who wants to do eight hours' work in six or to do it better than another worker."

This past summer, a neighboring school teacher had an unfortunate experience. He was mowing his lawn, and his little girl of nine was helping him rake the grass. Other children in the neighborhood came along and asked the little girl, "How much are you getting?" When she replied that she was raking the grass because she liked to help her daddy and that she wasn't getting anything but a lot of fun, her playmates chastised her with a sharp "Sucker! What a dope you are!" The sequel to the story is that the father was so perturbed about the general attitude of the parents and children in that particular neighborhood that he moved away.

The Great Issue of Our Times

What has happened to those home-spun qualities of character, initiative, drive and resourcefulness that made this country so great? The childish notion that someone will take care of us without our making any effort ourselves is fantastic economics. Individual initiative is the foundation stone of security, health and prosperity. The present attitude to do and give as little as possible will ultimately bring on depression and unemployment.

The greatest issue before the American people today is to find public officers who will give us the social climate necessary for the development of individual initiative, self-reliance, self-betterment and self-achievement. Felix Morley, recently writing in Nation's Business, stated our problem in plain words when he said: "The theory that men owe it to themselves to win their way has been forgotten. Instead of believing that all men are worthy of respect by virtue of their individual efforts we tend to say that all men are worthy of support by virtue of political action."

Youthful Gunmen Get $40,000 In Holdup

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(INS)—Three youthful gunmen using gaudy scarves as masks robbed a Washington bank of $40,000 Thursday after forcing the manager to open a vault.

The bandit trio appeared at a recently-built branch of the National Metropolitan bank shortly after noon, menaced employes and patrons with revolvers, and ordered Manager Francis Hildebrand to open the vault.

Hildebrand said the gunmen, who operated calmly and quickly, fled in a waiting automobile.

Theatrical Union Officers Elected

New Castle Theatrical Union, No. 451, of the A. F. L. conducted their annual election of officers, Wednesday evening in the AFL hall.

Those elected are: President, Norman D. Freeborne; vice-president, Francis N. Eakin; treasurer, William F. Hall; secretary, William J. McCormick; business manager, John P. Brogan; trustees, Paul E. Walter, George A. Kalata and Robert O. Woodring.

Meetings of the union are scheduled on the first Thursday of each month. January 4, is the next session.

PERMIT TO REMODEL

Union Agreement By Crucible Steel

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 8.—(INS)—The CIO-United Steelworkers on Thursday announced the first signing of a union-shop agreement in its 1950 wage negotiations with the steel industry.

The agreement was signed with the Crucible Steel Company of America, employing more than 11,500 steelworkers in plants in Pittsburgh, Midland, Pa., Harrison, N. J., and Syracuse, N. Y.

Under a union-shop agreement, all employes must join the union after 30 days. However, under the Crucible agreement, those employes not now members need not join but all new employes must join within 30 days.

Aid For Korea Requested From Local Red Cross

Mrs. Frank Eichholtz, Junior Red Cross Chairman has just received a report from the American National Red Cross concerning the present needs of children in Korea. Mr. Frank Cleverly, administrator of Foreign Operations of the American National Red Cross has just returned from an extensive visit to Korea where he conferred with the military authorities and the Korean Red Cross on the type and quantity of Red Cross aid needed to help meet the present emergency conditions. As a result of these conferences, the American Junior Red Cross has been requested to ship a large quantity of heavy undergarments and sweaters for children between the ages of two and ten years. In addition, it has been requested that we ship as soon as possible to Korea, 50,000 Junior Red Cross gift boxes.

The request for underwear and sweaters has been approved under the National Children's Fund and an allotment of $150,000.00 has been set aside for the immediate purchase and shipment of these items.

Enrollment Not Complete

The Junior Red Cross Enrollment which was conducted in the school during November has not been completed, Mrs. Eichholtz states. Forty-one Lawrence County schools have already completed their enrollment, and it is hoped that the others will soon be completed. $357.54 has been contributed to the Junior Red Cross through the school children's donations. Already $250.00 has been sent to the National Children's Fund to assist with the purchases for Korea. 318 gift boxes have been completed thus far by the Lawrence County school children and more are expected. These will be shipped to Korea before th first of February, 1951.

Mrs. Eichholtz also stated that their would be a Junior Red Cross Council meeting Saturday morning at the Chapter House. The members will fill Christmas stockings which are to be given to each of the Lawrence County men who are patients in Deshon.

To Use Vacuum Cup And Tape Measure

When George Patterson, city assessor, makes triennial assessments for next year for the years 1952-54, inclusive, he will be armed with a vaccum cup and tape measure—which will help to eliminate an assistant. Heretofore an assistant assessor has always been hired by the city.

In measuring houses, Mr. Patterson will place the cup against one and unroll the tape measure to procure its dimensions, it is reported.

Surplus Material Sold To School Without Students

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(INS)—A government investigator testified today that four to seven million dollars worth of surplus aviation equipment was sold for $11,909 to an Indiana aeronautics school which never had any students.

The investigator, Robert Cartwright of the general accounting office, advised a House executive expenditures subcommittee the school was never in operation.

He said that an investigation disclosed that equipment for the "non-profit" educational institution subsequently was transferred to the private business of some of the school officials.

The school was identified as the Bunker Hill (Ind.) School of Aeronautics, the name and location of which subsequently was changed to the Indiana School of Aeronautics, Seymour, Ind.

Safety Education Planned In State

HARRISBURG, Dec. 8.—(INS)—Highways safety officials are planning an accelerated program of safety education for Pennsylvania's motorists and pedestrians in 1951.

T. Elmer Transeau, executive director of the governor's highway safety advisory committee, said today details will be outlined at a special meeting December 12 for "the most aggressive and progressive program ever designed to save life and limb on Pennsylvania's roads."

"The gradually improving record of motor casualties, in the face of a mounting volume of traffic, definitely proves the value of safety education," he said. "The year 1951 will top all others in effort expended and, I hope, in results achieved."

Approximately 12.5 per cent of the skilled labor force in the United States is concentrated in Ne wYork state.

If Your Stomach Is Like a GAS Factory!

When you eat a meal and its turns right into gas, it's a sign your food is not digesting quickly enough. It just lays there and ferments. So you are in misery with gas for hours afterward.

Many New Castle people used to feel that way before they got CERTA-VIN. This new medicine digests food faster and better. Taken before meals it works with your food. Gas pains go! Inches of bloat vanish! Contains Vitamin B-1 with Iron to give pep and make nerves stronger. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering. Get CERTA-VIN at your Drug Store.

GOING HOME FOR CHRISTMAS?
Take B&O's Strata-Dome* Coach Streamliner
The NEW Columbian

CHICAGO-AKRON-PITTSBURGH
WASHINGTON and the EAST

There is something gay and colorful about this Diesel-electric streamliner at any time. Add the fact that you pay only low coach fare, and you have the ideal train for that Christmas trip.

A ride in the Strata-Dome*, with only the stars above you, is a thrilling gift to yourself! Besides this, there are restful "Sleepy Hollow" reclining coach-seats (reserved in advance without charge), friendly lounges, a delightfully modern diner, radio and musical programs.

Conviction Of Hiss Affirmed

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—(INS)—The U. S. Court of Appeals unanimously affirmed on Thursday the conviction of Alger Hiss, former State Department official, on perjury charges on denying he was a member of a Communist ring operating in Washington.

Hiss, who advised President Roosevelt at Yalta and helped to organize the United Nations at San Francisco, is under sentence of five years, pronounced by U. S. Judge Goddard.

The chief accuser against Hiss was Whittaker Chambers, former editor of Time Magazine, who was a self-admitted courier for a Communist spy ring.

Drive Carefully; Enjoy Christmas

—Chief Hanna

Best way of being sure to spend Christmas at home this year is to drive carefully between now and the holidays, Chief of Police Robert D. Hanna advised New Castle motorists today.

Everybody is busier just before Christmas, and as a rule, the roads are more dangerous, Chief Hanna pointed out.

"Sleet, ice, snow, rain, all present extra hazards when driving, and we should take extra precautions to avoid costly accidents and injuries," he said.

"Two out of three winter accidents occur on snow or ice, according to studies in typical snowbelt states, the National Safety Council has discovered. The winter accident rate is 24 to 53 per cent above the summer figure in snowbelt states."

"Drive according to conditions and have winter safety equipment ready," Chief Hanna said. "Tire chains are needed at times to counteract severe snow and ice conditions. Use your anti-skid chains when needed, and avoid an accidental missing link in your family circle at Christmas.

"And to insure good visibility, be sure your winshield wiper blades, defroster, and headlights are in good condition."

Careless or negligent driving is not only hazardous, Chief Hanna observed, it's also against the law. He said that every accident will be thoroughly investigated to determine the cause, and that drivers guilty of law violations will be prosecuted.

Local Soldier Hurt In Korea

Mrs. George E. Bell, of 509 Lyndal street, has received word from the U. S. Department of Defense that her brother, Pfc. Joseph W. Fenchak, U. S. Army, was slightly injured in Korea.

Later, she received a letter from her brother himself, stating that he was injured when some detonators, with which they were working, exploded, injuring him about the feet. He has been released from the hospital, where he was undergoing treatment, he stated.

If you want to prevent mineral deposits from accumulating on the inside of your teakettle, wash the inside of the kettle often. To remove deposits, boil a mixture of equal parts of vinegar and water in the kettle, cool, and let stand several hours. This treatment loosens the scale so it is usually possible to scrape it off with a wooden spoon.

Evergreens Were Hard Hit By Snow

Since the snow has virtually disappeared from the record storm experienced during the last week of November, local residents are discovering additional evidence of the damage which was done by the heavy snow.

Folks with low growing evergreens and shrubs have found that they took a severe beating. Many were levelled to the ground by the weight of the snow, breaking off branches, and ruining many of them.

TOP ARMY SALESMAN

HARRISBURG, Dec. 8—(INS)—Sgt. Maurice Davis is being hailed today as the Harrisburg Army Recruiting Station's top salesman.

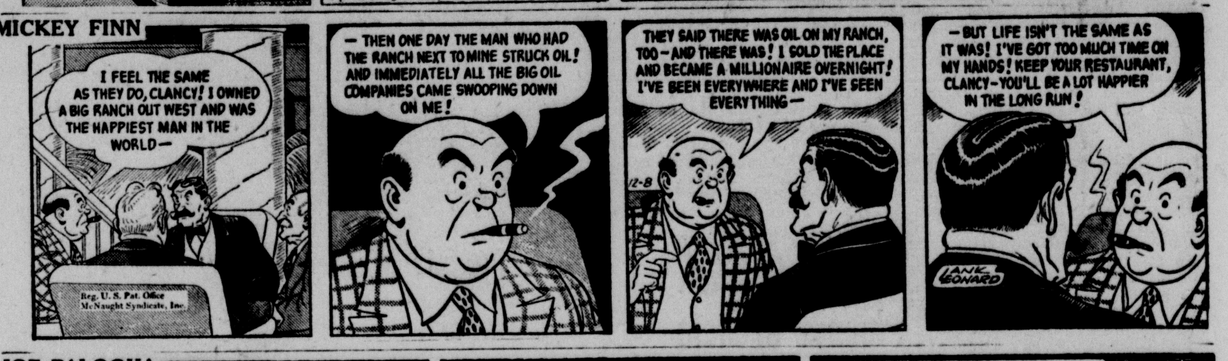

Davis, a 10-year veteran, talked fast and smooth today in detailing the advantages of an Army career to a young civilian. And in no time at all signed up his 18-year-old brother, James, for a four-year hitch.

The Davises are natives of Huntingdon.

Hurricane Cagers Lauuch Pre-League Cage Season Tonight

Youngstown East High Will Serve As Foe For Milanovich Debut

Four lettermen and two others with varsity experience, will carry Hurricane spangles into the 1950-51 opener against Youngstown East tonight at the George Washington junior high school gymnasium.

Vitale, Sansone, Latsko and Marinelli, return as lettermen, and will be teamed with Boak and Cobau, as those having varsity experience. Figured to dress with the varsity, but having no inter-scholastic experience, are Palumbo, Bucker, Strehler, McKay, Pia, Tarnoci, and possibly Runyon and Russo.

Latsko has been bothered by a foot blister, but will see action; Fiorante has quit the squad.

Canes Losers in '49

Coach Koma's East high Golden Bears will send three players into action, instrumental in dumping the Canes in last year's engagement. In the 1949 clash, despite Don Reed's 31 points, the Canes were ten-point, 68-58 losers. Simpson, Rizello, and Delsignore, have proved the best practice season standouts.

New Castle tonight will launch a seven game pre-league season, and the first under head coach John Milanovich. Youngstown East is also taking the wraps off the new season, and this first game should prove a test run for both squads.

The preliminary game will begin at 7 o'clock, and will match the jayvee squads of both schools. The varsity squads will play immediately following the reserve game.

Lawrence To Name Leaders December 19

Lawrence County Sportsman's Association will elect officers to serve during 1951, when the members meet in Ecclesian hall, at 8 o'clock, December 19. Candidates were nominated at the November meeting.

Ellwood Club To Elect Officers

Ellwood City-Wampum Rod and Gun club will meet at the club house at 8 o'clock, Monday night. Officers will be elected to serve during 1951. The program will include motion pictures, according to Secretary Harold McKim.

Big Ten Heads Acted Wisely In Banning Of TV

CHICAGO, Dec. 8—(INS)—Athletics and football in particular simply don't mix well when stirred with television according to a big-ten committee.

The special three-man group told the Western Conference Athletic Directors in Chicago yesterday that the league was acting wisely by banning TV from its football stadia.

Athletic direcors Doug Mills of Illinois; Ted Payseur of Northwestern; and Fritz Crisler of Michigan composed the committee which also reported that big-ten football attendance for 1950 fell three per cent below the previous year.

The committee's conclusions were based on a nationwide survey it took on football, baseball and other sports of both the amateur and professional class.

Flanagan Hopes To Box Williams

Del Flanagan of St. Paul scored an upset win over Sandy Saddler in a non-title fight at Detroit, Wednesday night. It was his fiftieth fight which brought him 48 victories and two draws. He hopes to fight Ike Williams for the lightweight championship in January. It was Saddler's first setback in 25 fights. Low punches, hitting in the clinches, heeling and butting featured the bout.

Buck Season Ends Saturday

Buck deer hunting season ends Saturday, and no doubt hunters who have been unsuccessful in bagging a male deer may make a belated trip to the Big Woods in an attempt to bring one home. Not as many deer have been killed this season as formerly in Lawrence county.

Murphy And Beau To Battle Tonight

NEW YORK, Dec. 8—(INS)—Bob Murphy, the slugging ex-sailor from San Diego, Cal., meets Jimmy Beau of Norwalk, Conn., tonight in an over-the-weight 10-round feature bout at Madison Square Garden.

Murphy, a light-heavyweight, has scored 48 kayo triumphs in 54 fights. On that record he rules a 2-1 favorite over his 20-year-old middleweight foe.

HERE and THERE IN SPORTS LAND

THERE ARE four candidates to fill the position of boxing and wrestling commissioner which became vacant when Governor James Duff relieved Bill Montgomery of his portfolio during the spring primary eelction. They are John D. Holahan, business manager of the Pittsburgh Steelers; Lou Shiring, a deputy commissioner and hopeful for elevation; Dick Guy, former newspaperman, and Regis Welsh, also an ex-newspaperman, who is public relations agent for the state department of labor and industry. It is unlikely that the vacancy will be filled until Governor-Elect John S. Fine takes the oath of office January 16, unless he suggests to Governor Duff the name of the man he wants. . . . Reno, Nev., wants Ezzard Charles, world's heavyweight boxing champ, to box the winner of the Will Bean-Clarence Henry bout in Los Angeles, December 19. The fight would be staged May 30. . . . Jim Farley, who had much to do with electing the late F.D.R. as president, and later became postmaster-general, in his early days managed Harlem Tommy Murphy, New York lightweight. . . . Players named to the 1950 Associated Press All-Pennsylvania scholastic football team will be invited as guests to attend the annual banquet of the Johnstown Dapper Dan club, December 16. The A.P. will announce their names December 13. . . . Carl Wallace is a perennial hopeful buck hunter. Last year he failed to bag a buck in Edenburg district. Several days ago he journeyed again to the district and came back buck-less.

HERE'S SOME American Bowling Congress information: January 6, last day for entries and entry fees from reservation holders. February 15, last day for all entries. April 7, tournament opens. It is not known yet whether any New Castle bowlers will participate. . . . With an eye to the athletic welfare of its employes, the B. F. Goodrich company, Akron, is installing 12 alleys at one of their plant buildings. . . . The largest wall-eyed pike caught was taken by Pat Hoon at Fort Erie, Ont., in 1943. It weighed 22 pounds, four ounces, was 36¼ inches long and girth 21 inches, according to Field and Stream. . . . Forty dollars was the total paid by three New Castle men during September state law violations, according to the Pennsylvania Angler. Two operated motorboats without displaying a license, another fished without a license. . . . Apparently, the come-back venture of Billy Pozza, Ellwood City heavyweight, is off. Some time ago, Pete Boy, trainer, said Billy would attempt a come-back. . . . Delvin Miller, the nation's leading money-winning driver, has bought out his partner's interest in the Meadow Lands Stock Farms, at Meadow Brook, Pa. He owns Adios, stallion, world's fastest pacing horse. . . . Frank Ervin bought the yearling colt, Triumph, for $5,000 at the reecnt Harrisburg sales. . . . Coming of New Year's recalls when the late Sol Leff and Alex Silverman gave a New Year's party and vaudeville show for local newsboys. Some of those who helped Here and There put it over are gone, namely, Henry Goldberg, Henry Dysart and Ed. Logan. There yet remains Al Simpson, Billy Williams and Garf' Davis.

Hershey Bears Defeat Eagles

(By International News Service)

The New Haven Eagles suffered their 22nd defeat in 27 games last night and unconfirmed rumors had it that the Eagles are going to drop out of the American Hockey League.

Only a handful of fans—about 700—turned out in New Haven to see the last place Eagles lose to the Hershey Bears, 4-3.

The victory pushed Hershey to within a single point of the Buffalo Bisons who lead the league's eastern division. The Hershey-New Haven game was the only one played last night. No contests are scheduled tonight.

Fans Show Interest In Wednesday Bouts

While the feature match will find Frederick Von Schacht, the Milwaukee German wrestling Ronnie Etchison, 28 year old heavyweight, there is considerable interest in the other bouts on the Arena docket, Wednesday night.

Fans know Von Schacht's style, having seen him wrestle, but as yet have to learn what Ronnie can do. Advanced notices claim Ronnie knows his wrestling.

Golden Hawk, Indian, takes on rugged Billy Venable in the main bout. Fans will journey to the Arena to see if Hawk can be compared to Don Eagle, who is wrestling's outstanding redskin performer.

Sandor Kovac, who won one of three falls from Mr. America (Gene Stanlee) here will pair with Bobby Ford in a Tag match with rugged Len Hughes and Joe Christie, an ex-fighter. Hughes was liked by fans in his only match here.

In order to induce more owmen to become familiar with pro wrestling, the Jefferson A. C. has decided to admit women at a much lower rate than is charged for general admission, and seat them in a special women's section.

CASCIO CO-CAPTAIN

Pulaskis Trim Youngstown Five For Second Win

Lanky "Lou" Plonka, with 20 points, led the Teddy Kolcz coached K. Pulaski "Big Five" to their second win in two nights at the K. P. floor last night, as the Oaklanders downed the strong Youngstown Eagles, 48 to 41. It was the first win for the Pulaskis over the Youngstown Eagles in ten years.

Plonka, 6-foot 4-inch center was a bearcat on defense as well as offense, while Tom Clarke and Presner pushed Plonka for scoring honors with 10 and 8 respectively. Yarb was best for the losers with 19 points. The Pulaskis led at the half, 20-19.

Butler Sunday

Sunday afternoon at the K. P. hall the Pulaskis will battle the strong Butler All-Stars composed of former high school stars, following a 2:15 o'clock preliminary game.

Last night the Pulaski Cubs lost 36 to 20 to the East Side Crunchera in the premlim.

Greyhounds, Eagles, Union Play At Home

New Wilmington, Union and East Brook play at home tonight, while Mt. Jackson and Shenango take to the road in county class B high school basketball games.

New Wilmington will play for the first time this season before the home folks and has picked a pretty tough opponent in Greenville. The Trojans opened their season Wednesday night with a 45-41 loss to Meadville, while New Wilmington's Greyhounds have split even in two outings.

Union Meets Darlington

Union will get its first intra-scholastic test when it takes on Darlington at the Union high floor. The Scotties were given a few lessons by their grads last Tuesday but should be the better for it.

East Brook will entertain a team of unknown quality—Harrisville—in an attempt to register its second straight win.

Mt. Jackson has a big job ahead of it, when it takes on Hickory, last year's Distriet 10 Class A champions, at Hickory. The Hornets drubbed Brookfield, O., 48-29 in their only time out this season.

Shenango will seek to improve upon its 0-2 record when it travels to Hopewell. Hopewell was on the short end of a 51-32 count with New Brighton last Tuesday but should be tough for the green Wildcats of Shenango.

Junior Church League Will Open Saturday

Twelve teams, registered for play in the Junior Church league at the Y. M. C. A., go into action Saturday, Dec. 9.

3:00, Croton vs. Second U. P.
3:45, St. George vs. First Methodists.
4:30, Central Presbys vs. Third U. P.
5:15, Highland U. P. vs. First Presby.

Chandler Warns Baseball Men Of Critical Period

By KEN SMITH
(I. N. S. Sports Writer)

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Dec. 8.—The army of minor leaguers was enroute home today, sobered by a warning from baseball commissioner A. B. Chandler that "we are living in dire times. Only God knows what tomorrow will bring for our boys and you fellows must be prepared to act accordingly."

Chandler re-arranged his language to soft pedal an earlier observation that he considered total mobilization near and that the game would have to prepare for the possibility of suspension. But the diamond's five-star general left no room for doubt that the game must prepare for such an emergency as he closed the baseball convention with a final banquet speech.

Critical Period Ahead

"We are coming to a critical period," he told the banqueters, "and when you say something like that you run the risk of it coming out a little different than you intended."

Last night Chandler said:

"Baseball is one of the few organizations that the government has not moved into. And if we continue to conduct our affairs as we did in the past, it won't. I know nothing about when or if total mobilization will come. President Roosevelt gave it the green light in the last war as it was considered valuable to the war morale of our people and soldiers."

Closing, Happy said: "And with God's help I shall rule baseball with majesty, justice and integrity for the American people."

Colleges Given Encouragement

NEW YORK, Dec. 8—(INS)—War-conscious college athletic directors received words of encouragement today to continue their programs.

Elwood C. Kastner, president of the American Association of College Registrars, told the conference of eastern college atheltic directors that there always will be a need for trained college men, no matter what the drain from the military draft.

Makes Schedules

He admitted that the future doesn't "look too bright" but he added that "it is far from hopeless and there is much that can be done by athletic directors."

Kastner advised the members to continue their athletic programs and suggested that the freshman rule be suspended as it was in World War II, thus making first-year students eligible for varsity athletics. He suggested that extensive road trips for athletic competition be curtailed.

YMCA Industrial League Results

The Universal Pottery's star-studded five, moved into undisputed possession of first place in the C-I League at the Y. M. C. A. last night with a 52-46 win over United A. A. Fred Wimer's constant accuracy was the margin of difference.

Bobby Hassan's 13 points, were not enough, as El Fityet bowed to the Legion team in the second game.

The individual scoring efforts for the evening go to Sammy Caiazza, who poured six field goals a half through the hoops. His two last period fouls brought the total to 26.

United Five Tops Youngstown Frosh

Jim Jannacone paced the locals with 13 points. Bud Mayberry, of East Brook, was high man for the Youngstown Frosh with 10 points.

Elliott Steelers Bowl Here Tonight

Elliott Steelers and Ellwood City Subways will bowl at Castle alleys at 9 p.m. tonight in a Tri-County Women's match. Sunday, the Steelers will bowl two matches, one against Ambridge at Ambridge and the other match against Ellwood City at Castle alleys.

Paul Brown Can Have Gopher Job

CHICAGO, Dec. 8.—(INS)—The hunt for a successor to Bernie Bierman as head football coach at Minnesota has been narrowed down to three candidates now that Bud Wilkinson of Oklahoma has said "no, thanks" to the job.

International News Service learned Paul Brown of the professional Cleveland Browns, can have the position if he wants it. Both Win Brockmeyer of Wausau, Wis., high school and Dallas Ward of Colorado want it and one of the two may be appointed if and one of the two may be appointed if Brown refuses.

Warriors Trounce Olympians 102-73

(By International News Service)

The Philadelphia Warriors recaptured first place in the National Basketball Association's eastern division as they swamped the Indianapolis Olympians last night, 102 to 73.

Rifle Club Loses To Ellwood City

New Castle rifle club was defeated by the Ellwood City club 1405-1363 this week in the club's third match of the season.

W. Thomas, former star of the local club now shooting with Ellwood, was high man with 292 out of a possible 300. Top scorer for New Castle was Charles Byler who shot 281.

This evening the club will have a practice shoot. Monday evening, Dec. 11, will be an open date. Next scheduled match will be with Sports Inc., on Dec. 18.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8—(INS)—Alfred G. Vanderbilt has been elected president of the Thoroughbred Racing Association.

Athletics Secure Schwartz As Trainer

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 8—(INS)—The Philadelphia Athletics reached out to Chicago to bring Edward J. (Packey) Schwartz to their clubhouse today as the team's new trainer.

Packey, who lugged the liniment for the Chicago White Sox for eight years, will replace James (Doc) Tadley, who resigned as the A's trainer after 12 years.

Schwartz started as a trainer with the White Sox in 1943 when Jimmy Dykes, the A's new manager, was managing the Chicago club.

Boucher Ready To Throw In Sponge

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—(INS)—New York Ranger general manager Frank Boucher says he will vacate his post if the last-place Blueshirts fail to make the National Hockey league playoffs this season.

Boucher made his statement yesterday while discussing New York's 9 to 0 loss to Detroit Wednesday night.

"I have been here four seasons and I know we are apparently putting hockey in a bad light in New York," Boucher declared. "If we can't win after five seasons, I better give up."

Ban All Shipments To Communist Controlled Nations

(BULLETIN)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(INS)—Senate banking committee chairman Maybank (D) S. C., said today that Commerce Scretary Sawyer is issuing an immediate ban against shipments of all kinds to countries controlled by the international Communist movement.
Maybank said the ban would apply to both war and non-war material.
He said that in addition to covering shipments directly from the United States, the ban would cover trans-shipments through foreign countries in which American vessels are involved.
Maybank said that under the regulation, shipments to Yugoslavia would be permitted to continue.

The total number of telephones in the United States is given as 38,000,000, or three-fifths of the world's total of 66,000,000.

Bares Romancing

EX-SHOWGIRL Lillian Duval sits outside the courtroom in Boston after testifying that her naval commander second husband wanted her to bathe in perfume and wear her mink coat to bed. She was seeking separate maintenance from Lt. Comdr. John W. Watson, 51. Her first husband was the late Paul Curley, son of ex-Gov. James M. Curley. A sudden out-of-court settlement put a stop to the torrid testimony, bringing disappointment to the crowd. (International)

New York Stocks

Stock Market Generally Lower

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—(INS)—The stock market ruled generally lower today, although a few issues were in demand.
Standard Oil of New Jersey was among the weaker industrials, declining 1¾ points to 84. Goodrich was off 1¼ at 114½. General Motors off 1 at 44⅞, Chrysler off ¾ at 65, DuPont off ⅝ at 78¾, National Lead off 1 at 60, and Allied Chemical off ½ at 56½.
On the other hand, railroad equipment issues, expected to benefit from war orders, were active and higher. American Car & Foundry rose ⅝ to 33⅛. American Locomotive was up ⅝ to a new high at 20⅞, and Baldwin-Lima was up ⅛ at 12⅝. American Woolen was another strong spot, advancing ¾ to 34⅜.
Rails were mixed. Missouri-Kansas-Texas preferred gained 1⅜ to 43½, and small gains were recorded by Canadian Pacific and Southern Railway. Fractional losses were sustained by New York Central, Baltimore & Ohio and Chesapeake & Ohio.
Curb stocks were irregular. Cities Service was up ½, Electric Bond & Share was off ⅛ and Kaiser Fraser was off ⅛.

Holy Trinity Church To Dedicate Organ Sunday, December 10

On Sunday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, at the Holy Trinity Polish National Catholic church, Miller and South Jefferson streets, there will be dedication and blessing of a new organ.
The organ was purchased through the efforts of the Lutnia choir and the generosity of the Ladies Adoration society, the Ladies Rota society, Polish National Union, branch 119, and members of Holy Trinity church.
The new organ will be dedicated and blessed by Rev. Fr. E. C. Kuzminski, pastor, assisted by Rev. Fr. John Zieba and Rev. Fr. Feliks Rekas, Youngstown. Sermon will be delivered by Rev. Fr. Donald Kulawasz, McKees Rocks.

Vesper Services
Following the dedication, Vesper services will take place, with the Lutnia choir, under the direction of Miss Genevieve Biedka, organist, singing the various Psalms. During the Vesper service, Mrs. Charlotte Emery, guest organist, will give two organ selections, "My Rosary" and "The Holy City."
After Vesper service, with Rev. Fr. John Zieba as celebrant, the adoration and benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament will take place. Rev. Fr. Kuzminski will give the concluding remarks.
The committee in charge of arrangements for the new organ includes: Miss Wanda Yarosz, Miss Genevieve Biedka, Alex Michaels and Rev. Fr. E. Z. Kuzminski.
